Q. I'm a bit confused. First I heard that Jane Joyce, Susan Dey's guardian, went to Ireland. I also heard that she didn't live with Susan anymore or have to stay on the set with her now that Susan's 18. But now, I see that Jane's writing her old Partridge column for Tiger Beat again. What gives?

A. Everything you've heard is true. When Susan turned 18, Jane was no longer required to come on the set as a guardian every day. When filming stopped last February, Susan went home to New York and Jane went to Ireland to study at the university there. She came back last summer the same time Susan came back to resume filming and since they were such great friends they decided to be roommates again. Jane also took back her old job of being Susan's stand-in, so she's back on the set everyday again. Since she is back, Ann Moses, Tiger Beat Editor, asked her if she'd like to write her "On the Set with the Partridges" column again since everyone liked it so much. Jane was glad to be able to bring you up to the minute on what's what with the Partridges so she agreed! Jane just had a birthday and Susan and David threw her a little mini-party on the set!
