FOR SUSAN:

Dear Susan,

I like the Partridge Family very much. But I enjoy you most. You're very pretty. By the way, what are your plans for the future?

Steve Rief
LaMirada, California

Dear Steve,

Thank you for the compliment! And I'm super glad that you enjoy the show because we enjoy bringing it to you! Like everyone else, I don't know exactly what the future holds in store for me, but my plans are to remain in the acting field and try to improve my talent in every way I can. But, personally, I just want to become a better person as each day passes and appreciate each moment that comes.

Dear Susan,

Do you believe that it's all right for girls to ask guys out for dates? How about calling them on the phone? I try to be patient but some of the boys I know never get around to doing all this stuff!

L. W.

Levittown, New York

Dear L. W.,

Boy, do I know how you feel! But, I do have to say that I personally don't care for asking guys out so I just wait until I get asked out by someone I want to date. If you need to call a boy for a specific reason, I don't see any harm in it. But I don't think it's too good an idea to keep calling every night and end up with nothing to say to each other. I know it seems bad now, but really, the boys will soon start calling and doing "all this stuff" so much that you'll forget that it was ever any different!

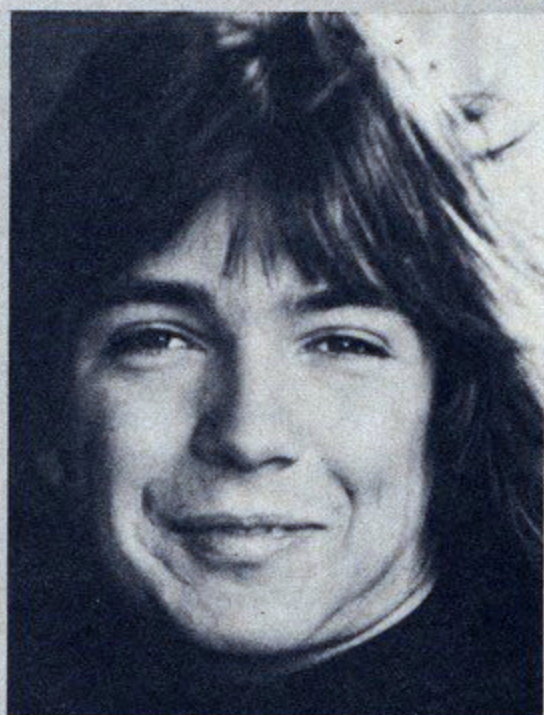

Dear Susan,

You're really a very beautiful person and you act so well. Do you have any brothers and sisters? Can I subscribe to Tiger Beat's Official Partridge Family Magazine?

Lesa Fitzhum
Tonasket, Washington

Dear Lesa,

Thank you—I hope you'll always think I can act well. As far as being a beautiful person, you should see my sisters and brother! They're the really beautiful people in my family, but of course I'm kind of partial to them. Actually, I have an older sister Lesley, who is married and lives in the East. My brother, Tommy, is seventeen and my sister Elisabeth is ten. They both live with my parents in Mt. Kisco, New York. If you turn to page 4, you can learn how to subscribe to Partridge Family Magazine. I know you'll enjoy it!

FOR DAVID:

Dear David,

I've never written a letter to anybody like you before but I can't think of anyone else I can ask. How do you get to know a girl? There's a lot of girls I'd like to make my friends and even ask some out for dates, but I can't think of anything to say to them. I end up acting like a fool and just stand there looking at my feet or the walls. If you answer this, please don't use my real name—that would just make things worse and everyone would laugh at me!

Speechless
Jackson, Alabama

Dear Speechless,

I'm really not in any position to give advice but I do know what you're going through because the same thing happened to me! When I first started noticing girls as very special people, I didn't know how to act either. But I learned, as you
