DAVID ASKS:

"Why Do They Say Those Awful Things?"

created these rumors knowing they were untrue but printed them anyway only to increase their sales and circulation!

A pounding in the back of his head seemed to grow louder and louder as the ugly whispers somehow found their way into his brain.

David realized that his business left him easy victim for gossip mongers but to experience the actual ugliness of it all was always upsetting. The rumors were so remarkable and so false.

"Does David have polio?"—"Are Susan and David secretly married?"—"David and Bobby: Enemies!"—"David and Shirley not speaking!" The phrases and words were whirling around in his mind until he felt he couldn't bear it a minute longer.

But even as he opened his eyes David knew the real reason why he couldn't ignore the lies any longer. And this was the whole reason for the sadness he was feeling so deeply now.
