

Super Holiday Contest!

Win A Christmas Present From Your Fave!

That's right! Christmas is just around the corner. It's that magical time of year when you're thinking of what to buy or make your friends and loved ones. Then early Christmas morning you open your presents and delight at the thoughtful gifts you've received.

But this year might be different! How would you like to wake up Christmas morning and find a special present from your fave! Yes! A present picked out especially for YOU by the guy you love most! Impossible? No! It can happen to YOU and it's as easy as one-two-three.

Here's all you have to do: Just fill in the contest coupon below (or a facsimile) with your name and address. Be sure you put a big check mark next to your fave's name. If you have more than one fave, you'll have to choose your very favorite and check only one square!

Then, the entries will be put in four separate barrels—one for each guy—and blindfolded Bobby, David, Donny, and Wes will choose the one lucky winner from all their entries. Then, each groovy guy will pick out a Christmas present especially for their winner and send it along with a special hand written message.

Sound exciting? Then don't waste a minute. Send in your entry today! Deadline for all entries is midnight, December 14th!
