

"FOOLING AROUND and having fun," says Michael Jackson, "are two things my brothers and I do really well!" It seems nothing but exciting things have been happening to this multi-talented family. For the full story of what their life at home is like, don't miss the TIGER BEAT Exclusive story "The J-5's Life At Home" by their friend and father, Joe Jackson on page 20.

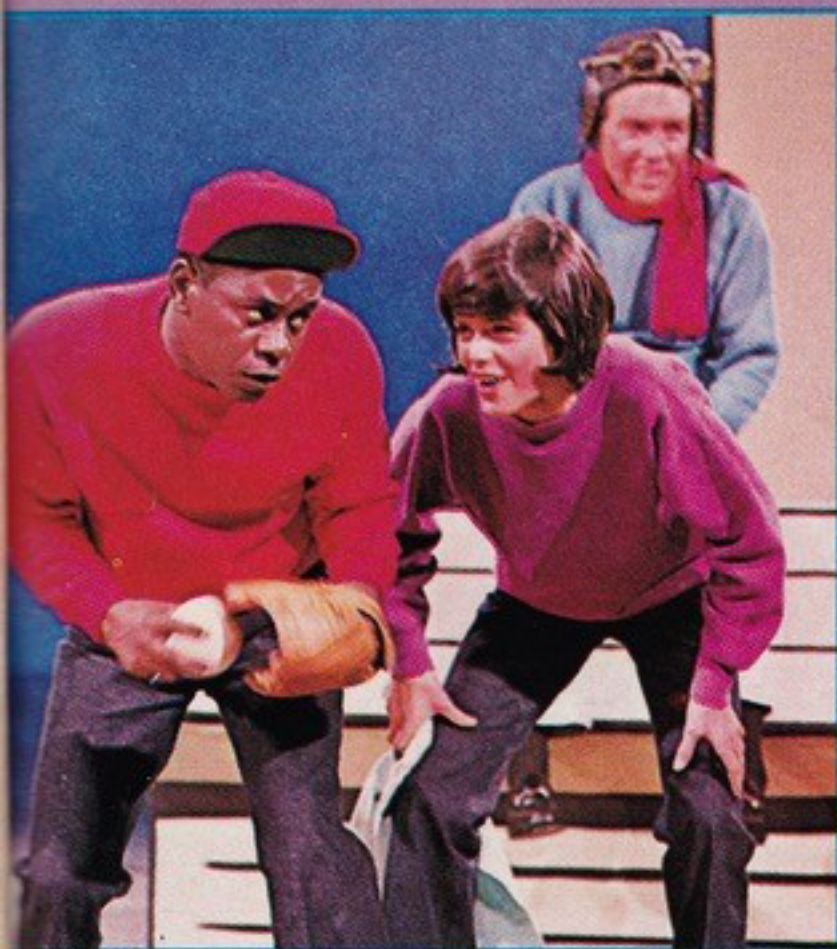

DAVID'S DAD JACK CASSIDY welcomes him to the "Merv Griffin Show," where Jack was acting as guest host. Jack questioned David about his music, his life as a teenage idol and how his parents' divorce affected him. David answered his questions honestly!

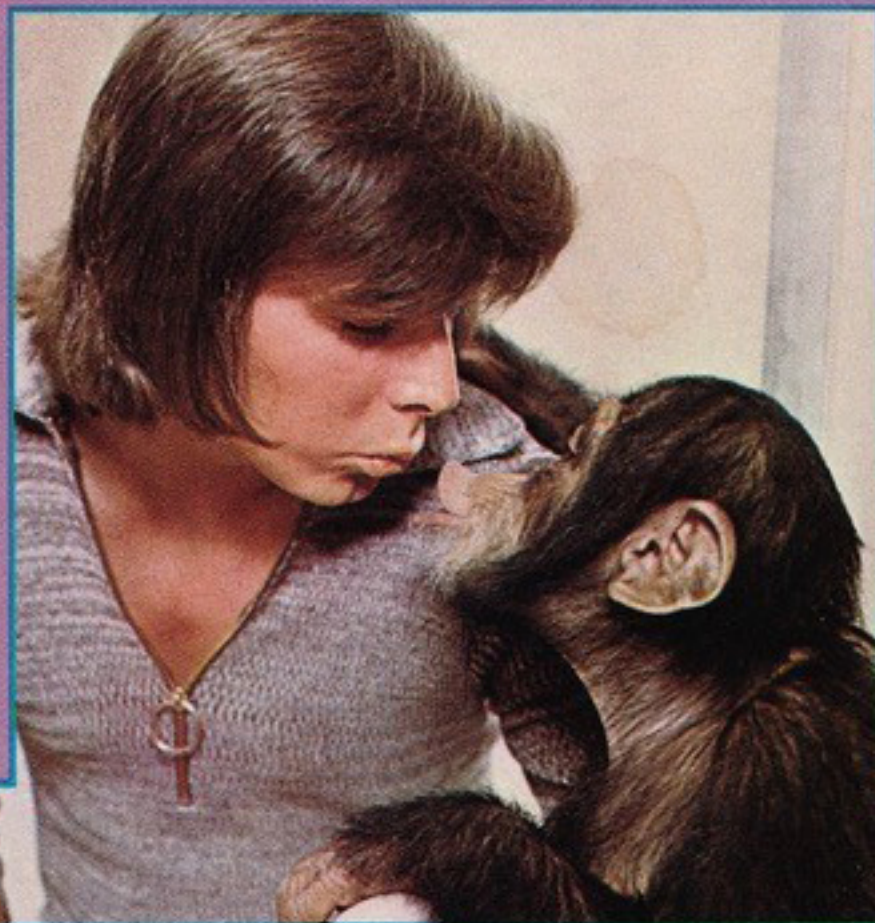

HANDSOME MICHAEL GRAY celebrated his 21st birthday at the TIGER BEAT offices on Sept. 2nd, opening the pile of birthday cards that had been sent to our Hollywood offices. Above, Michael proudly shows off the love poster he received from a fan. He loved each card and gift he received!

FOLLOWING HIS APPEARANCE on "The Flip Wilson Show" with his brothers, Donny went right into the recording studios in Hollywood to make the finishing touches on his second album. Can you guess who does the background vocals on his records. It's not too hard — it's his brothers, Alan, Wayne, Merrill and Jay! Can you think of any group better suited to the job? We can't!

IT WAS GREAT FUN and even educational when Bobby worked with a number of trained chimps on an episode of "Getting Together" recently. All the chimps were friendly and Bobby dug them!

BELIEVE IT OR NOT! It's Dave Madden caught on the set of "The Partridge Family." Dave was a super good sport about dressing up in this "Good Fairy" costume for a dream sequence for an episode of the show. He was once a "good fairy" on "Laugh-In" too. He didn't mind the costume, he said, but one thing he wouldn't do was go to the studio commissary for lunch! Hah!
