years and was a one-time member of the group called "The Knack." His first single release on his own is called "Mister, (You're Gonna Lose Her)" and is on the Metro-media label—the same one that took BOBBY to the top of the charts. Listen for the record and look out for MICHAEL . . . The OSMOND BROTHERS' Christmas television special "He's My Brother," was a perfect delight. The OSMONDS can really sing—and dance—and act up quite a storm. Did you know that the film the boys used to open the special with was taken by their Grandfather? It shows the boys at the tender ages of 5, 6, 7 and 9 (DONNY was still a bit too young then) singing and dancing and would you believe that after their Grandfather took the film he sent it to ED SULLIVAN and LAWRENCE

WELK, and they both turned the musical children down? If all goes as planned, the OSMONDS may have their own television series soon called "He's My Brother." We certainly hope so, as these young men are five of the most talented guys on the scene today . . . FaVE'S EYE CONTEST WINNER CANDY MOORE says she had the greatest time ever during her week in Hollywood. Candy, who's 15 years old, and her Mom got to meet such faves as DAVID CASSIDY, THE OSMOND BROTHERS, RICK ELY, FRANK WEBB, BOBBY SHERMAN and many more. Candy was from Miami, Florida, and you can read all about her happy adventures in Hollywood in the March issue of FaVE on sale January 26! . . . and I'll see you again then, too!

ELVIS was a knock-out smash at his two November Forum concerts in Inglewood, Cal. Be sure to see his movie.

MICHAEL CHAIN has just released a new single. He used to date Barbara Hershey of "Last Summer" fame.
