

"ARE YOU
MY KIND OF GIRL?"

DAVID CASSIDY'S
UP-TO-NOW
SECRET THOUGHTS
ABOUT GIRLS,
DATING AND MARRAIGE!

When we at FLIP first interviewed David Cassidy, one of the very first things we asked him about was girls—what he liked and didn't like and what he was looking for.

At that time he wasn't too sure. He gave short, vague answers about "alive girls, girls who've got something to say, girls who feel things."

But now he's been asked about girls by a lot more people and he's thought about the subject much more.

FLIP

Sitting on the set of "The Partridge Family" one day recently, he talked more openly, honestly and easily about girls, dating and marriage. Here are his thoughts and feeling on the subject matter.

ABOUT GOING STEADY—"I rarely go steady. I just like to date a lot of different girls. I suppose I'm always looking for that one girl I can really dig, but I don't get much of an opportunity to meet that many girls because I work all day and I go home tired and I sleep. I don't go to school and usually you meet
