

DEAR CAROL

Q. My girlfriend says that Bobby Sherman is dying of blood poisoning. Is this true!?

T.M.—Racoon Rapids, Minn.

A. Heaven's no! Bobby's still very much living.

Q. Is it true that David Cassidy's singing is being dubbed on "The Partridge Family"?

J.S.—Edinburg, Tex.

A. All of the singing on the first show was dubbed because there wasn't enough time to have everyone do their own singing. But all of the singing in the rest of the shows has been the people on the show, including David.

Q. How old do you have to be to drive in California and how come Barry Williams could ride a motorcycle when he was only 15?

M.R.—Ridgewood, N.J.

A. You have to be 16 to get a driver's license in California but you can get a learner's permit at 15 1/2 and you can ride a motorcycle then.

Q. Another magazine said that Bobby Sherman was doing an ABC Movie Of The Week called "Tuesday Afternoon" that was about a Jewish boy in jail, but you gave another title in FLIP. What movie is he doing?

K.G.—West Haven, Conn.

A. Bobby is doing an ABC Movie Of The Week called "Zoom" which is about a young film documentary maker.

Q. I've flipped over the Bugaloos. Where can I write to them?

S.M.—Kaiduce, Hawaii

A. You can write to the Bugaloos at P.O. Box 4558, North Hollywood, California 91607.

Q. My girlfriend told me that David Cassidy's roommate Sam is really a girl named Samantha. Please tell me it isn't true.

P.T.—Paterson, N.J.

A. It isn't true. David's roommate is a guy named Sam Hyman.
