

DAVID CASSIDY

Cynthia Wennig, 14
White Haven, Pa.

David, David, What a guy,
When I see him I could cry.
Love and hope and peace he brings,
And all his other groovy things.
Smiles and smiles are his to give,
Long may the Lord let David live.
When his face is on T.V.,
He smiles a smile meant just for me.
Conservatives, liberals or what you may,
Turn him off like night and day.
On Adam-12 he made a hit,
But Marcus Welby—that was it!
Wow, when he turns on that smile,
It proves he has real class, real style.
A great perfection, only yours,
Your love of peace, your hate of wars,
And even though you're bigger and bolder,
And even though you're 6 years older,
Someday in the future, not far away,
I'll meet David somehow, someday!

MY FAVE!

Patty Epstein, 16
Lowell, Mich.

What is love?
Take a look around,
It belongs
To the boy I've found.
What is happy?
look at his grin,
This guy gives
me needles and pins.
What is sexy?
look how he moves,
When he sings
he really grooves.
What is love?
It's dearest Dave,
Forever
he will be my fave!

DAVID IS MY VALENTINE

Cathy Franken, 15
Detroit, Michigan

David's sweet smile fills my heart.
Something there sets him apart
From all the other faves I see,
And makes him number one for me.
His shining eyes, aglow with light
of love, that warms me through the night
As I lay sleepless and watch his face
Float in front of me on space.
He gives me hope, I have no care,
And always is the constant prayer
Someday his hand will reach for mine,
For David is my valentine.

THE ANGELS GAME

Bonny Jameson, 16
Gardena, Calif.

The angels came from out of the sky
To give a hand in making this guy.
They put the stars within his eyes,
The softest murmur in his sighs.
A thousand dreams they wove with care,
To make him extra-specially rare.
They added gifts of drama and song,
everything perfect—nothing wrong.
A beautiful smile, a heart so warm.
A gentle touch to quiet a storm.
These things the angels brought from above,
But most of all they brought him love.
