

SUSAN DEY'S Private Journal

A MUST for all girls who want to be popular, more attractive, and achieve all those special goals a girl needs to be really, really happy. You've seen Susan on the "Partridge Family." Would you enjoy being like her? Naturally, you'd like to be David Cassidy's close friend, but there's much much more to Susan Dey than you see on television. She's a top fashion model, a fine actress, and at ease in every social situation with both sexes. She's developed her talents and her beauty by a simple program of concentration and hard work. Her secrets can be yours now!

words changed until they both howled at their fun!

During football season, their school had sock hops where couples wear crazily decorated socks to a dance. Diana would sew feathers or popcorn or always something crazy on their socks—and David loved it! He'd found that beauty, like Phyllis', was meaningless unless a girl had personality—and Diana did!

David dated Diana all the way through high school. Sometimes he liked her more than other times—and she felt that same way about him. After all, that's the way love is.

THEY BROKE UP

David and Diana split up the night of the senior prom. It wasn't as sad as it seems... they both decided it would be better if they didn't see each other anymore. Diana was going off to college in New England and David didn't know quite what he wanted to do.

He knew that maintaining his love for Diana would be difficult for both of them... and Diana knew it too. So they broke up! But both David and Diana had tears in their eyes the night they decided their romance was over.

David doesn't have a steady girlfriend now. His first loves are behind him and sometimes he wonders if they were really true. He doesn't really think so. He thinks that Judy, Kathy, Phyllis and Diana were wonderful girls and that he learned about love from them but when he searches deep in his heart, he doesn't think he was really in love!

David feels that he still has to meet the girl that will be his first—and only—true love. He looks for her on every corner, in every audience, at every personal appearance. He doesn't know what she'll look like but he knows he'll recognize her by that certain spark, that unmistakable glow, the automatic flash he'll feel from her.

Will David's true love be you?
