Tell It Like It IS!

The whole truth and nothing but the truth on all the questions you've been asking!

Hi - I really dig the title of our column "Tell It Like It Is", because that's exactly what we're doing! We love the chance to read everyone of your letters and to answer them honestly! So, keep writing us here at Tiger Beat so you can be sure we get your message!

Dear David,

If you don't mind, I would like to ask a couple of questions. Why is your mother called Shirley Jones instead of Shirley Cassidy? Also, I plan to meet you one day. How should I address you?

Dear Theresa,

I certainly don't mind your questions, in fact, I welcome them. That's exactly what this column is about!

Shirley Jones is my step-mother not my real mother. She's married to my dad, Jack Cassidy. That means her married name is Shirley Cassidy but she uses her professional name Shirley Jones when working. When we do meet, I hope you'll just call me David! Can I call you Theresa?
