

Dear Susan,

I love "The Partridge Family" and I think you're very beautiful! How old are you and is David as groovy, kind and nice as he seems?

Anna
Rochester, Vt.

Dear Anna,

I'm glad you love the show, and thanks for the compliment! I just turned 18 on December 10. The cast threw me a really great party, and I wish you could have been there. Yes! David is as groovy, kind and nice as he seems!

Dear David,

I think "Tell it Like it Is" is the greatest column around! I love reading it, especially since I know that YOU and SUSAN really do write it! Do you enjoy reading all our letters?

Christine Conners
Bridgeport, Conn.

Dear Christine,

You don't know how happy it makes me feel to know that you like "our" column! We really work hard at it so all Tiger Beat readers will know the true facts! This is the place to write whenever you want to know something—Susan and I really love talking to you here and we certainly do enjoy reading all the letters!

DONNING A CANDY STRIPER uniform, Susan has a slightly different role in one episode of the show.

Dear Susan,

How could you ever pass up a chance like that? I mean, is it true there is nothing serious between you and David? You have a million and one chances with David. Why don't you take them? I think you'd be a groovy couple!

Debby Morris

DANNY HAS PLAYED many different characters on "The Partridge Family," but this one tops them all! Agree?

Dear Debby,

Yes, it's true there is nothing serious between David and I! We are very fond of each other as good friends and we have loads of fun working together! Actually, I'm glad that David and I don't date, because it would spoil our working relationship! It would be hard to "act" with a person you loved. David is a great friend to have!

WHEN KEITH POSES as an orderly and Shirley poses as a nurse, the hospital goes topsy-turvy in one show!

Dear David,

A girlfriend of mine just showed me a book she got called "The Secret of David Cassidy." She let me see it and I just about flipped! Where can I get one, and did you help write the book?

Judy Flanges
Lindenhurst, N.Y.

Dear Judy,

I'm glad you liked the book because I did help with it! Tiger Beat's editor Ann Moses spent almost an entire week with me on the set, getting it all together! You can get a copy through Tiger Beat! Just check the ad on page 65 of this issue! Thanks for writing and I'll be looking for another letter from you!

THOUGH JUDY STRANGIS, above, has dated David many times, they are NOT going steady and date others!

Dear David,

I am so worried. I hope you can help me. A different magazine printed that you and Judy Strangis of Room 222 were "practically engaged." Is it true? Please, "tell it like it is!"

Carla Andrews
Birmingham, Ala.

Dear Carla,

I hope this will clear everything up—I don't want you to be worried anymore. Judy and I are just friends! It seems that in Hollywood, when you take a girl out a few times the magazines have you engaged or married! It just isn't true, and it really hurts! A lot of magazines will say anything to sell themselves, but you can depend on Tiger Beat and FaVE to keep you informed of the truth—and Susan and I help too, by answering honestly the questions you ask here in our column! If you want to know exactly what my relationship to Judy is, she's written an entire story about it in Tiger Beat Spectacular No. 3, on sale now! This spectacular really means a lot to me because I helped work on it—and, it's all about me! I hope you like it, and I hope I've straightened everything out! Stay happy, and be well. I'll be looking for you.
