PARTRIDGE Fan Club NEWS

By Cecelia Bonaduce - President

EXCLUSIVE

Each month read all the fan club news about the Partridge Family right here in Cecelia Bonaduce's column!

Take the song, "I Think I Love You," add a multi-colored bus with a sign that reads "Nervous Mother Driving," five talented kids and a harried manager and what do you get? Right! The hit of the TV season, "The Partridge Family." And what should all hit shows have? Right again! A Fan Club! Now there is an official Partridge Family Fan Club, with an official Partridge Family Fan Club President... name: Cecelia Bonaduce. Does the last name ring any bells? It should. I'm Danny's sister!

So far we've got so many members I can't even tell you the exact number because I haven't finished counting yet. If you haven't joined yet, flip to page 23 and get on board. We have some really wonderful things planned for the future.

Big news on the Partridge set this week is the completion of a brand new Partridge home. Don't be surprised if it looks exactly like the old house on your TV screen. What happened was that the old Partridge house burned down in a studio fire at the Ranch, a few months ago.

Speaking of fires, last month Danny was playing at a friend's house in his neighborhood, when three fire trucks went racing down the street. Danny, like any other eleven-year-old boy ran after them and caught up just in time to see his own house going up in flames. The kitchen and family room were destroyed, but the Bonaduce's house is still standing.

Dave Madden made a lot of new friends... at a car wash!!! How do you make friends at a car wash? It's easy. Just have the president of your own fan club twist your arm until you promise to show up at a charity car wash. Dave not only came, he also made a large donation. Dave, we at the car wash salute you!

Have you noticed David Cassidy's new hair style? As his hair got longer, it became almost impossible to part in the middle. Now David has completely disregarded the part and combs his hair forward.

David's record "I Think I Love You" was a smash all over the country before it made the charts in Los Angeles. The first time the song was played in the L.A. area, David was in the middle of shooting a scene, and he missed the entire song.

Susan Dey and her roommate guardian Jane Joyce went to San Francisco while the Partridges were on vacation. Susan said that she had a great time and she adored San Francisco.

My father was down on the set one day on his way to work at 20th Century-Fox. (He's the script consultant for "Arnie" at Fox.) One of the Partridge cast members complimented him on the quality of the scripts. Can you guess which Partridge it was? Shirley Jones? No. David? No. It was little Jeremy Gelbwaks. If you've read that Jeremy wants to be a writer someday, it's no joke. Jeremy takes writing very seriously.

Suzanne Crough is still waiting for her teeth to come in. If you visit the Partridge set, don't ever tickle Susanne. She's the most ticklish person on the studio lot, although Jeremy runs a close second.

Shirley Jones told me kiddingly that she was tired of Danny stealing all the scenes with his brilliant red hair, so you may see Shirley in some very colorful outfits in the next few shows. Look for an orange ice pants suit and a kelly green sweater and wool hat. Danny is going to have to find a new gimmick!

Next season the Partridges will probably get a new bus. This time with power steering. Life will be a lot easier for everybody! One day last week, one of the crew was backing the bus up and almost hit Shirley's Rolls Royce.

One question frequently asked concerning the show is "where and when do Suzanne, Danny, and Jeremy go to school?" One frequent answer is "on the set." Danny, Jeremy and Susanne have a little schoolroom (and a little teacher) on the set and get their education during the day when they aren't needed for shooting.

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS ABOUT THE PARTRIDGES

Susan Dey is reading "Rosencrans and Guildenstern Are Dead" (isn't everybody?) David Cassidy doesn't like jelly beans or black licorice.

Jeremy can spell "Chanukah" four different ways.

Dave Madden had his appendix out in 1948 (it was a very good year).

David rides the Bonaduce motorscooter as much as the Bonaduces' (only better).

You pronounce our last name Bon A Du Che.

Dave Madden was doing his old juggling act on the set... he's rusty.

Any questions concerning the Partridges or the Fan Club? If so write to me: CECELIA BONADUCE, c/o Tiger Beat.
