

I wonder? Have you noticed DAVID CASSIDY'S new hair style and his new clothes in the exclusive Tiger Beat color photos in this issue? I'm sure you have and I'd like to give you the story behind both of them. First of all, the producers of "The Partridge Family" just didn't like DAVID'S hair the way he had been wearing it, because it looked different every day and that made it hard to match up film shot on two different days. DAVID didn't want to change it, but the producers told him he had to. When it was all done—the cutting and styling—DAVID liked the new look and suggested we do a brand new photo session so all our photos would be up to date. We thought it was a great idea, naturally!

And about the new clothes—DAVID still loves his stripped tee shirt and his jeans, but because he's been doing

GREAT NEWS FOR SHERMAN FANS! I just got word that Bobby will have his very own TV show next season on ABC-TV every Friday night right after "The Partridge Family." You'll get a preview look at the show as an upcoming segment of "The Partridge Family." Read my whole story in the March Tiger Beat, on sale February 9th.

morning and his back side was still sore from the ones he'd gotten earlier that week. Just the same, BOBBY was so excited about the upcoming tour we had no trouble getting lots of smiling pictures!

Some other bits of news BOBBY told me was that he'd be filming an "Andy Williams Show" in December, which means you should be seeing it any time, so watch your TV listings closely. In January, BOBBY will be super busy filming his own TV Spe-so many TV and personal appearances here, there and everywhere, he thought he could use some new threads. So, he invited Kenny Lieu and me to come along and help him pick out some new clothes. No sooner said than done and in the photos here (and two pages of them in Tiger Beat Spectacular Presents David Cassidy) you can see just how that shopping spree went. It only took DAVID a couple of hours one night after work to pick out a dozen new pair of pants, eighteen new shirts and three new coats! When we all left, we couldn't get over the fact that we'd had so much fun doing something as practical as buying new clothes!

BOBBY SHERMAN came home (to Hollywood) long enough this month to sign several contracts for future appearances AND to have a new photo session with us! Hooray! You've probably noticed those new photos throughout this issue. Those pictures were shot just a very few days before BOBBY left for his Japanese tour (which will be covered exclusively in the next issue of Tiger Beat in stories and photos). Believe it or not, BOBBY was really feeling badly the day we shot the pictures. His arm was swollen from the two shots he'd received that cial and he'll begin work in his movie in which he plays Billy the Kid. Tentative titles for that film, which will be seen in movie theaters around the country, are "The Cool Kid" or "What Made Billy Run?" Also in the early months of 1971 BOBBY will be filming his pilot of "Zoom," and doing a segment of the "Interns" in which he'll play a young detective, which could spin off into a TV series! BOBBY says you'll be seeing him in his own series every week by fall of this year!
