

YOUR DAY ON

calls for pajamas so everyone disappears for a few minutes and comes back giggling in PJ's. David and Susan both note that the ones they wear on the show are not anything like the ones they would choose for themselves.

EVERYONE JUMPS IN BED

Then everyone jumps into bed, including the dog, Simone, (who is a boy dog). The scene shows them all crowded into one hotel room with Susan and Suzanne and the dog in one bed, David and Danny on a couch, Jeremy on the floor and Shirley looking for a spot.

The dog begins to squirm but Susan pulls him down by his collar and he looks directly into the camera as though this were his one big closeup.

The scene seems to take forever before the director is satisfied and between takes everyone amuses themselves. Shirley picks up her knitting; Danny hangs from a camera as though it were a jungle gym; Jeremy and Suzanne wander over to a table where various games and toys have been set up for them to play with and David asks another cameraman to explain how the television cameras work.

This particular episode is about when the group's manager, Ruben, played by Dave Madden, is about to get married and they're all upset about losing him.

A TUG OF WAR

Dave stands by and looks amused at the chaos around him. Over in one corner David and Danny are in the midst of a tug of war. Susan is trying to get some reading done and Suzanne and a girlfriend are running from one end of the studio to the other.

Danny is only 11 but you sometimes wonder if he's not really much older. He's a very talkative, social, vigorously outgoing kind of guy who strikes up a conversation with everyone around. His older brother, Anthony, is around to keep an eye on him but Danny moves so fast it's hard for anyone to keep up with him.

Soon it's time for lunch, and everyone takes off to change out of their PJs and into something a little more suitable for lunch at a local restaurant.

After the hour lunch break, nine-year-old Jeremy is the first to return. He spies our photographer and flashes a couple of peace signs before becoming totally engrossed in the Mad Magazine he's reading.

Danny roars up on his blue bike and parks out front in what looks like a Schwinn parking lot—everyone on the show has a different colored bike. Danny informs us that David has said he's going to beat him up, then rushes off on another adventure. Danny never walks anywhere if he can run, ride his bike, skip, fly or otherwise madly rush by.

Susan comes back in and discovers, after a few confusing moments, that she's free
