

DEAR CAROL

Q. In your October issue you said that Elvis had a twin brother who died at birth named Aaron. Wasn't his name Jessie Garon Presley? And isn't Elvis' middle name Aaron? Please tell me if I'm right or wrong.

T.H.—Mesquite, Texas

A. You are right and I admit I was wrong.

Q. Does Barry Williams have any brothers or sisters?

J.D.—Rossville, Ga.

A. Barry has two older brothers, Scott and Craig.

Q. Could you please tell me if Joe South is married. Also is his drummer, Tommy South married?

C.B.—Dorchester, Mass.

A. Joe South is single, but his brother Tommy is married. His wife is named Barbara.

Q. Bobby Sherman loves his black fans as well as he loves his white fans. Right?

B.L.—Cincinnati, Ohio

A. Right!

Q. Is it true that there is a new member of the Grassroots? I saw them on TV recently and there were 5!

H.J.—Smithtown, N.Y.

A. Yes, there are now five Roots. The new member is guitarist Terry Furlong.

Q. I saw a picture of the Osmond family and there was no father. Is their father dead?

T.K.—Houppauge, N.Y.

A. George Osmond, father of the Osmond Brothers, is very much alive, but he's often very busy with business things and can't always take time to be in pictures with his great family.

Q. Does Peggy Lipton have any brothers or sisters?

J.C.—Largo, Fla.

A. Yes, she has two brothers—actor Robert Lipton and Kenny, a student.

Q. Does George Harrison of the Beatles have any children?

L.H.—Phoenix, Ariz.

A. No, George and Patti Harrison have no children.

Q. Is it true that ABC's "The Young Rebels" is being done at the same location as our favorite "Here Come the Brides" was done?

C.H.—Woodhaven, N.Y.

A. Both "The Partridge Family" and "The Young Rebels" are being done at the Columbia Ranch where "Here Come the Brides" was filmed and some of the sets that used to be Seattle are now the camps of both the Rebels and the British.

Q. Is Ray Stevens married?

J.L.—Ontario, Canada

A. Yes. Ray and his wife, Penny, have two daughters.

Q. A few years ago Mark Lindsay used to say quite often that when he got married he would tell his fans and not try to hide it. Does he still feel that way? The reason I ask is that I keep reading about his love, Cathy, and I was wondering if he was trying to say it without saying it.

T.S.—N.Y., N.Y.

A. Mark still feels the same way. If he does marry, you'll be told immediately. He says he has no marriage plans right now with Cathy or anyone.

Q. I would like to know if Arlo Guthrie is married, going steady or divorced?

V.N.—Middle Village, N.Y.

A. Arlo is married and by the time you read this he and his wife Jackie will probably be parents.

Q. Is Shirley Jones David Cassidy's mother or stepmother? If she is his stepmother, did his real mother die or was she divorced?

W.B.—Rosedale, N.Y.

A. Shirley is David's stepmother. Jack Cassidy and his first wife, actress Evelyn Ward, are divorced.

Q. What is Eric Burdon doing now and does he have any children?

R.S.—Corpus Christi, Texas

A. Eric is divorced and has no children. He and his new group, War, are touring and recording and sounding better all the time.

Q. In my school they say that Bobby Sherman has a twin. Is it true?

M.O.—Mt. Dora, Fla.
