

FLIP

Dear FLIP,

Several issues back Karen Clarke of San Diego said that if you haven't seen the Grass Roots perform live then you don't know what music is about. Boy, is it true! I saw them this spring and they were terrific! I really love them! Please put more of them in your mag. Thanks!

Mary Beth
Omaha, Nebraska

Dear FLIP,

Yesterday I watched "Ironside" on TV and Bill Bixby guest starred. He had an awful part—he played a psychopath. Boy! That was a wrong part for the kinda guy he is. So to the writers of "Ironside"—don't give him such rotten parts like that!

Robin Campbell
Stamford, Conn.

Dear FLIP,

David Cassidy really hits a tingly spot in me. I've been waiting a long time to see someone in FLIP who really turns me on. I just wanted everyone, and especially David, to know I love everything I've read about him. I like Bobby Sherman, but by my books, David Cassidy has him beat.

Linda Kincaid
Oklahoma City, Okla.

Dear FLIP,

That open letter to David Cassidy in the October issue was the most sincere article and letter that Carol Deck has ever written! I agree with her 100%. Even though he isn't Bobby Sherman, he's still one of the nicest guys around. Thank you, Carol, for saying what I'm sure everybody, at least me, has felt.

Tracey Grant
Tucson, Arizona

Dear FLIP,

The day before yesterday my girlfriend Jill called and told me to go and get the TV Guide. I asked her why, but she just said to go and get it. So I did. And to my surprise I found that our favorite guy, David Cassidy, was going to be on "American Bandstand." So today we watched "A.B." and David was great! They showed some groovy film of "The Partridge Family" and David was such a doll! Man, he's cute! He looked so tan and so natural! He even sang "I Think I Love You!" How great can anyone be? I plan on buying all "Partridge Family" records and albums and hope that you will print more info and many more pics and color pin-ups on this groovy guy. Thanks!

Maureen Heckaman
Anderson, Indiana

Dear FLIP,

I love your magazine, but if you read it at the wrong time you can get into a lot of trouble. I was reading the November issue in my Civics class when my teacher caught me and asked me what I was reading. I told him I was reading the article on David Cassidy. I had to write a 5,000 word report on David Cassidy! (I was surprised I knew that much about anyone!) P.S. He gave me an A-plus!

Kathie R.
Clinton, Iowa

Dear FLIP,

I've just finished seeing Shirley Jones on the Dick Cavett Show in which she said that three of the kids in the Partridge Family are hers in real life, including one stepson. Now I know darling David Cassidy is her stepson. But who are the other three? Now don't tell me I must have been hearing things or something like that, because I know I wasn't. My mother even heard her!

Sally P.

Los Angeles, Calif.

What Shirley Jones said that night is that two of her children want to be on the show, but at the time we went to press, Shirley hadn't decided whether or not she wanted them to do it, and no scripts have been written including them.

Dear FLIP,

I just "flipped" when I saw the adorable Barry Williams in your October issue. He looked so dreamy and courageous in his navy cap. I can see why his parents were so proud!

Jan Turny
Pullman, Wash.

Dear FLIP,

In your November issue on page 19, there are some questions trying to find out how well we know Barry Williams. Well, I think we know Barry a little better than you think we do! How could he possibly have been born in 1945?

Marta Macchia
Jackson Heights, N.Y.

He wasn't. We accidentally reversed the last two numbers of the year he was born—Barry was born September 30, 1954, making him 16 years old.

Dear FLIP,

I have just been to see the movie, "House of Dark Shadows," and I want to tell you and all the Dark Shadows fans how great it was! The show was put together so superbly and the blood was so very realistic. You should have seen the faces of the audience as they came out! If any of you Dark Shadows fans miss it, you will never forgive yourself. P.S. I'm going to see it again tomorrow!

Linda Clausen
Hollywood, Florida