

CALIFORNIA CALLING...

Keep up with what's happening in the West with our gal, Joyce Becker!

The TINA SINATRA and ROBERT WAGNER romance is in full swing. Although he's still not divorced, Bob escorts Tina everywhere... even to sister NANCY SINATRA's opening in Las Vegas. Tina's older brother, FRANK SINATRA, JR., just bought himself a $100,000 Beverly Hills mansion. Maybe he's got a she-kret and will be ringing wedding bells soon.

JULIE BUDD sure is a lucky gal. CAROL BURNETT has already promised to take the talented 16-year-old song-bird on all her concert tours next summer. A mighty fine graduation gift for anyone.

With all the American talent heading for England to do their things, it was super of TOM JONES (word about an impending divorce between Tom and his Linda just isn't true!) to bring his show to David Cassidy's running from a serious romance—for the time being!

Karen Valentine and her hubby Carl spend a night on the town!

Hollywood to film some of our top stars right in their own back yard. Tom digs Hollywood and me-thinks he just may buy a home of his own here. For now he rents out the PAUL NEWMAN estate.

The ELVIS PRESLEY opening in Las Vegas was really something... as it always is. El was in great form and sang better than ever. His wife and daughter were missing though. They'd flown to Hawaii for a short vacation.

"One of the nicest things about being a regular in a television series is the doubt you create in the people you meet in public," said KAREN VALENTINE, the perky actress who plays teacher Alice Johnson in "Room 222." "I was in a department store recently," she told me during our lunch visit at 20th Century-Fox Studios, "and I couldn't make up my mind about which item I wanted to buy. The saleslady and I were discussing it, and I was rambl-
