

ing on as I usually do. Then the saleslady got this strange look in her eye and finally she said, 'You know, you're just like the teacher in "Room 222, the one who always gets things turned upside down.' When I told her that was me, she couldn't believe it," said Karen. "She thought I was putting her on until I told her all about the series. 'You're just like you are on TV,' she told me."

To be a commuting television star, one has to rise very early in the morning. FESS PARKER has to pile out of bed at 5 a.m. when he's in production for a film or TV show. First the tall Texan jogs for a half-hour, then showers and eats breakfast. Then he hops in his private airplane at Santa Bar-

DAVID JONES' new business called "The Street" (a group of shops that are under the famous discotheque The Factory) is doing so well, he may open a batch of Streets across the USA.

MICHAEL LINK, who stars as the lively and irrepressible Earl J. Waggedorn in "Julia," decided to find out how many freckles he had. One hour and 578 freckles later, he quit. Claimed he was seeing spots before his eyes!

MARLO THOMAS is dividing her time between co-star TED BESSELL . . . producer DAVID WOLPER . . . and ABC-TV exec LEN GOLDBERG.

By the time this reaches print, BOB CRANE ("Hogan's Heroes") and co-star SIGRID VALDIS could be

Join Chad Everett and his wife Shelby for a day at the race track!

Grace Slick's a "good deed" doer!

John McCormick's destined to be a big star someday—and soon!

Trent Lehman digs dogs!

bara, California, and flies 120 miles to Burbank Airport, near the Hollywood studios, to arrive on the set at 8 a.m.

CHARLES NELSON REILLY can best be described as a performer's performer. Reilly teaches acting, coaches Metropolitan opera stars, has sung at Carnegie Hall and is now writing a Broadway musical with DARRYL HICKMAN.

DARBY HINTON had his dream come true when his mother had a new home built complete with an indoor swimming pool.

When not working on the set of "Nanny and the Professor," DAVID DOREMUS and TRENT LEHMAN, who play brothers in the ABC-TV series, can be seen on the studio lot playing their favorite game . . . baseball.

Mr. and Mrs. In the series Sigrid wears a blonde wig . . . in real life she's brunette.

Beautiful and talented (you should hear her sing) CARRIE FISHER, daughter of DEBBIE REYNOLDS and EDDIE FISHER, will be the next miss to make a name for herself on the Hollywood scene.

KAREN WYMAN is being screen-tested for "Koch," a flick about a teenybopper involved with a 70-year-old wolf played by WALTER MATTHAU.

The stars of "Zabriskie Point," MARK FRECHETTE and DARIA HALPRIN don't believe in dining out at fancy fooderies. They shun the posh places and dine at midnight with pals at a local deli.

JOHN LENNON and
(Please turn to page 62)

One of the most important ladies in Mike's life is his nice Mom!