

40 Faves Tell:

"My Favorite Christmas Present"

Christmas is a magic time of year when spirits are gay and hearts are filled with love and peace. Just like you, your faves have special holiday memories, so we asked them to recall their favorite Christmas present for this extra-special feature!

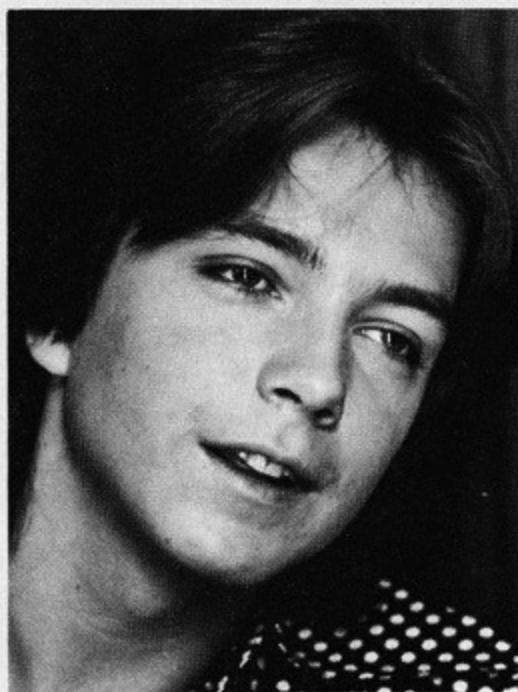

BOBBY SHERMAN

"I've received quite an assortment of Christmas gifts during my life now that I think about it! But the one I liked best was the midnight blue Rolls Royce I bought for myself!"

KURT RUSSELL

"Oh, let me think! I was around 13 years old and my parents surprised me with a drum set for Christmas. I couldn't have been more pleased because I'd wanted one for 13 years!"

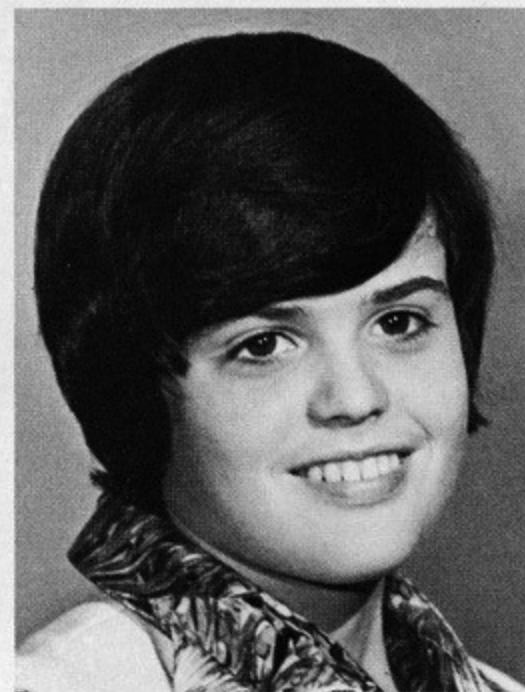

DAVID CASSIDY

"I was about seven years old and living in West Orange, N.J. at the time. For ages I wanted a sled of my own, and then I awoke on Christmas morning and found it under the tree!"

JACK WILD

"When I was 12 years old I was given a gold ring that carried my initials. It was my favorite gift, although it didn't turn out being too lucky—I lost it on my first acting job!"

DONNY OSMOND

"I love electronics, so last year my parents gave me a 4-track recording unit, only it was broken. I worked for two weeks straight to fix it and now we make recordings at home!"

RICK ELY

"When I was about seven or eight I had an interest in ventriloquism, so my grandparents gave me a Jerry Mahoney dummy. I didn't practice that much, but I did fairly well."
