

FAVE FLASHES FAVE FLASHES FAVE FLASHES FAVE FLASHES BY JOHNNY JASON

So here we are again—hope you had a groovy Spring vacation... All DAVID CASSIDY fans will be delighted to hear that the National Association of Record Merchandisers voted "I Think I Love You" the hottest selling single of 1970! DAVID just completed his first official tour which of course was a smashing success. Exclusive photos appear on pages 74 and 75 of this issue, and for more, pick up a copy of Tiger Beat's Official Partridge Family Magazine #4 when it goes on sale in July. They've got a great start to finish photo story! Also, we like to say that although this was DAVID's first tour, concert offers have been coming in for a long time and had DAVID accepted he would have earned somewhere close to $250,000 by now. But, DAVID, his managers and agents are to be congratulated. They refused to give any shows until they were well prepared to put on a good performance rather than just taking the money and running. And, also speaking of DAVID, a frequent date, JUDY STRANGIS whom you know as a semi-regular on "Room '222" has been cast by AARON SPELLING in ABC-TV's "Movie of the Week," "So Is Your Old Man," with BILL

BIXBY... Hot Pants are the growing thing and now that MARLO THOMAS is wearing them everywhere they'll be hotter than ever. That Girl wore them to New York University when she gave a guest lecture while donating her TV scripts to the school and ended up in a full front page photo in the newspaper. Meanwhile, the Movieland Wax Museum in Buena Park, California, is making a wax replica of MARLO (not in hot pants) for its permanent collection. The museum has proclaimed MARLO THOMAS Night to commemorate the unveiling of the wax figure... JON PROVOST became a millionaire on his 21st birthday. The former "Lassie" star was gifted with his $1,250,000 the state's been saving for him all these years. What a great present... BEATLE PAUL McCARTNEY and his lovely wife LINDA stopped traffic one afternoon when PAUL had his hair cut here at a local barber shop. Speaking of PAUL, if you didn't see the Grammy (record) awards on television, you missed the great McCARTNEY's surprise entrance to GRAMMY WINNER DIONNE WARWICK accepts her trophy from Bobby Sherman and Nancy Sinatra. She won for best performance by a female. Others presenting Grammys were David Cassidy, Shirley Jones, & the 5th Dimension!

CINDY DECKYS, 14, of Seattle, Wash., was the lucky girl who won David's poster contest in her town.
