

SIMON AND GARFUNKLE won many awards Grammy night for their hit song "Bridge Over Troubled Water."

pick up Grammys for himself, GEORGE and JOHN for music of "Let It Be." Nobody seemed to mind that PAUL was dressed casually for a formal affair and he wore white tennis shoes. He was awarded with a standing ovation as well as a Grammy. Also, if you missed the show, you also missed two of your favorites, DAVID CASSIDY and BOBBY SHERMAN who presented Grammys. DAVID, although somewhat nervous, managed to look and act in such a way that I suppose delighted his adoring fans everywhere, although the dialogue he and SHIRLEY JONES had was, well... That wasn't his fault, the writers did pretty badly on the whole show. BOBBY too, probably curled the toes of all his fans, but I must offer my congratulations to him on the fine cover-up job he did for NANCY SINATRA. He handled himself quite well. Somehow it seems that the awards telecasts are losing their splendor. It seems as though a lot of the "old-timers" take

LESLEY WARREN has decided to drop from "Mission: Impossible" and so has Leonard Nimoy. Is it a trend?

it as a big joke. In case you missed out on the winners, some of the ones you might be interested in were: Record of the Year: "Bridge Over Troubled Water;" Album of the year and Song of the Year: "Bridge Over Troubled Water." Best New Artist: (for which your Partridge Family was nominated) The CARPENTERS; Best Performance by a Female: DIONNE WARWICK for "I'll Never Fall In Love Again;" Best Performance by a Male: RAY STEVENS for "Everything is Beautiful;" Best Performance by a Group: The CARPENTERS for "Close to You;" and Best Comedy Recording: none other than FLIP WILSON for "The Devil Made Me Buy This Dress"... You can look for MITCH VOGEL, beginning his second season in "Bo-

NEWS AROUND TINSEL town is that the Mamas and the Papas may become a singing group again—great!

THE OSMOND BROTHERS television show didn't get great reviews but it did prove again how talented the boys are. Little Jimmy Osmond was a sure-fire scene stealer! The boys had a good show in Las Vegas too, and lots of fun!

nanza" not only to show up more in segments but with larger parts... SALLY FIELD has been having a great time looking over scripts she's been handed since her performance in "Maybe I'll Come Home in the Spring." Most of them are for TV series but SALLY wants to do mature features now. Her World Premiere Movie "Year 1" is due shortly and then she'll star in a movie for her husband STEVE CRAIG... LESLEY WARREN has asked for and been granted a release from her contract as a regular on "Mission: Impossible." No reasons have been given, but I don't think LESLEY will be missed. They didn't need her with the IMF (Impossible Missions Force) to begin with... It's also been reported that LEONARD NIMOY (of Mr. Spock fame) has also quit the IMF force... The singing FIFTH DIMENSION may just expand their talent and hit the stage. I heard they were in quiet negotiations for their stage debut in "Green Pastures," in New York... THE MAMAS AND THE PAPAS may become a family again... Just one month after its release, "Doesn't Somebody Want to Be Wanted" by the PARTRIDGE FAMILY (you know who we mean) qualified for a gold (million-seller) disk. The PARTRIDGE's second album "Up to Date" is a very delightful effort and includes the single. Two of the arrangements I liked best in the album are "She'd Rather Have the Rain" and "I'll Leave Myself a Little Time." Unlike the first PARTRIDGE ALBUM, this one's got pictures of all the PF stars on the jacket, and wonders of all, a PF book cover with a great picture of DAVID on one side and the whole family on the other is included... The singing

THE PARTRIDGE FAMILY's second L.P. "Up To Date" is fast-becoming a Number 1 seller around the nation.

CONTINUED ON PAGE 56