

SAM'S THE LUCKIEST DOG IN THE WORLD!

There's something very special in the relationship between a guy and his dog. And if the guy is David Cassidy—wow! How lucky can a dog get?

David and his black-and-white dog, Sam, are a happy pair. When David is home, Sam trots cheerfully after him as he goes from room to room. And if David ever sits down to read or relax, he can count on immediately getting a lap full of Sam!

In return, David gives Sam all the love a little dog could want. When Sam jumps up beside him, he knows David will absentmindedly fondle his ears (which he loves!). And he knows if he makes a few impatient trips between David and the back door, David will get the hint and take him outside for a romp on the lawn!

A friendship like that is truly special.

Lucky David!

Lucky Sam!
