

SURPRISE!

DAVID'S SUPER BIRTHDAY BLAST!

Two days after Christmas the presents began arriving at our offices. "Do Not Open Until April 12th" they read and were addressed simply Mr. David Cassidy, c/o TiGER BEAT. That's when FaVE's Editor Laudy Powell, TiGER BEAT Spectacular's Editor Sharon Lee and I got busy! We carefully hid each package in a back storage room.

Turning 21 is a big occasion in a person's life and we wanted to add our special good wishes to David's very special day. Thinking he was keeping a one o'clock interview appointment at the TiGER BEAT offices, David could hardly believe his eyes when he walked into Sharon Lee's office and found presents heaped everywhere. "Surprise!" we all screamed in unison and for a moment David couldn't speak!

He had planned to spend only an hour or so, but quickly made several calls and cancelled his afternoon plans. After a while, David's roommates Sam Hyman and Steve Ross dropped in to add to the celebration. Staying long past our usual closing time, David eagerly opened each package and read every card. You can bet David's 21st birthday is one he'll never forget!
