

DAVID'S SUPER BIRTHDAY BLAST!

CONTINUED

LUCKY ME! I never dreamed I'd receive such a sweet thank you from David for giving him my present—a case of Dry Roasted Cashews. Sharon gave David an original Jimi Hendrix poster; and Laudy—a case of 7-Up!

DAVID COULDN'T BELIEVE IT when he opened his present from the entire Laufer Company of magazines. It was a huge color photograph taken of David on stage in Seattle. He was really thrilled and said he couldn't wait to take it home and put it on the wall of his new music room.

THE PARTY STOPPED for a good half-hour as David became fascinated with a scrapbook from Nancy Russell. David received several scrapbooks.

A FAN NAMED DONNA sent David a beautifully carved soap Partridge. He really thought it was cute and said he would try it in the shower!

GOODIES GALORE! Fan Tracy Dellomo sent David a pine cone with a gorgeous butterfly attached. The poems came from Sandi Swanson and the Partridge Family wall plaque from a fan named Alberta. Many fans sent gifts with no cards, merely letting David know he was thought of and loved!
