

Tiger Beat Q & A

Q. Is it true that John Fogerty is leaving Creedence Clearwater and plans on doing work as a single artist?

A. Nope, don't worry because John has no intentions of leaving Creedence! His brother Tom, however, left the group several months ago so he could spend more time with his wife and children, and he hopes to do some solo work in the near future.

Q. Where can I write to David Doremus and the rest of the "Nanny and the Professor" gang?

A. You may write to all your favorite "Nanny" people at Twentieth Century Fox, Box 900, Beverly Hills, Ca.

Q. Is Brian Russell who played Jack Flagg in Walt Disney's "Adventures of Bullwhip Griffin" Kurt Russell's relative?

A. No, the boys are not related.

Q. Does David Jones have a fan club, and if so, could you tell me something about it?

A. Yes, David does have a fan club headed by Marianne Imbriani in New York. For your membership fee you'll be entitled to pictures, newsletters, stationery, and lots more! For information send a self-addressed stamped envelope to the David Jones Personal Fan Club, 2046 W. 4th St., Brooklyn, N.Y. 11223.

Q. Could you please tell me why Jan-Michael Vincent is using the name Jan now?

A. Jan happens to be his real first name, so now he's just decided to use his full name for a change!

Q. Would you please tell me how many instruments Bobby Sherman plays and what they are?

A. Get ready, because it's quite a long list! Bobby plays the drums, trumpet, bass guitar, trombone, French horn, baritone small tuba, piano, organ, sitar, and harmonica!

Q. In various articles the Osmond Brothers mention their strong belief in their religion. Can you tell me what religion they are?

A. Sure can, the Osmonds are of the Mormon faith.

Q. I would like to know if any of the Osmond Brothers smoke?

A. No, none of the Osmonds smoke.

Q. I am just mad about Bobby Sherman and I want to know if I can still send away for a Bobby Sherman Photo Album? If it's possible please let me know.

A. Yes, it's still available to those who'd like to get their own copy. And if that means you, then turn to page 44 right now!

Q. In your April issue of TIGER BEAT you featured David Jones in your Memory Book. In it you said he played the Artful Dodger in "Oliver." I always thought that part was played by Jack Wild. What did you mean?

A. You're right about saying Jack was the Artful Dodger in "Oliver," but that was only for the motion picture version. The Broadway stage production of the popular musical had an entirely different cast, and that's where David Jones had one of his major acting parts prior to his days as a Monkee.

Q. This may sound funny, but is David Cassidy related to Hop-Along-Cassidy?

A. No, he isn't. As David would put it, "Nooooo way!"

Michael

Q. When and where was Michael Cole born, and what color is his hair and eyes? Also, what is his favorite color?

A. Michael was born July 3rd in Madison, Wisconsin, and has green eyes and brown hair. When it comes to colors, Mike claims his favorite is green!

Q. I am a TIGER BEAT reader and just love being one. There is just one other magazine I read and that's FaVE. I heard they're both put out by the same company, but my friend doesn't think so. Can you tell us who's right?

A. You're right—TiGER BEAT and FaVE are sister magazines. And be sure not to miss our newest additions to the family—Tiger Beat Spectacular and the Official Partridge Family Magazine!

Q. I heard that Larry McNeely had a daughter. Can you tell me her name and when she was born?

A. Pretty little Karolyn Alicia was born to the Larry McNeely's last Christmas Eve, December 24, 1970.

Q. I have heard many ages that David Cassidy supposedly is, but I don't know what to believe. Can you help?

A. We'll certainly try! David just celebrated his 21st birthday on April 12. Hope that straightens things out!

Q. I know that Samantha Dolenz moved her boutique, but I don't know where. Can you help?

A. A couple of years ago Sammy moved "One of a Kind" from its original Hollywood location to Ventura Place in North Hollywood. But as of the last year Sammy closed her boutique so that she could spend more time at home with Micky and Ami.

Michael-James

Q. Could you please help me? I saw the "Wonderful World of Disney" and they had a show called "The Wacky Zoo of Morgan City." In it there was a boy who looked like Danny Bonaduce. Can you tell me if that was him?

A. No, the boy you had in mind was Michael-James Wixted, who, by the way, is now a regular in the weekly ABC series "The Smith Family."

Q. I heard that David Cassidy was getting married at the age of 30. Is this true?

A. It's impossible for us to say if this is true or not because DAVID doesn't even know! It's just something that only time will determine, but in the meantime David says marriage is quite a ways off!
