

MY SECRET AMBITION

RICK ELY

"Having lived in apartments for many years, I envy people who have large, lush-green gardens. I think it would be great to be a landscape designer for the enormous yards here in L.A."

FRANK WEBB

"All my life I've been the adventurous type—something that drove my mom wild when I was a kid! I still have the investigating-bug in me, so I'd like to become an explorer."

JEREMY GELBWAKS

"I'd very much like to try being a race car driver. Can you imagine any other field that's that exciting? Of course not! It's because there's nothing else that great, and I dig it!"

CHRIS STONE

"I'd like to do something worthwhile for the world, and since our biggest problem now is pollution, I'd like to be an ecologist who could discover some way to make our world clean!"

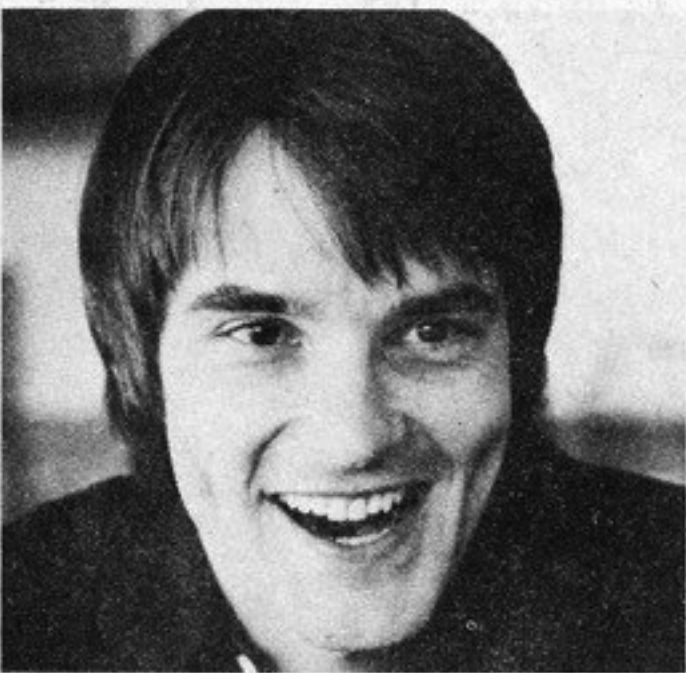

KAREN VALENTINE

"I guess I'm a school-oriented girl because I'd love being a real teacher. I can't think of a better accomplishment than getting even one student to actually think for himself!"

DANNY BONADUCE

"It's pretty easy to choose another field to work at if I wasn't acting. It's a field that my whole family is involved with—writing! I'd like to write for TV like my dad and mom!"

PHILIPPE FORQUET

"I'd like to have a permanent home in the southern part of France and also maintain one in America, but I don't plan on being there too often! I'd like to travel around the world."

MICHAEL COLE

"If I couldn't act I would really like a job where I could help people in need of food, education and medical attention. If I aided anybody in their struggle it would be rewarding."

WAYNE OSMOND

"I bet it's not too hard to guess, but if I could no longer be in the music profession I would like to become a commercial airline pilot. What a wild life that would be!"
