

DAVID'S SUPER BIRTHDAY BLAST!

SAM AND DAVID were so excited to receive a sea hunter pistol as a gift! Though they don't believe in killing sea life, they said it would be great to have underwater for protection. When they arrived, Sam and Steve (right) pitched in and helped David open his hundreds of presents!

DAVID WAS ESCTATIC when he opened this hand-knitted afghan from fan Eileen Fry of Bellmaur, N.J. He said he'd use it for a bedspread!

DAVID REALLY BROKE UP with laughter when he saw this original David Doll! Also in the package was a matching Susan Dey doll! He set them aside to take to the studio to show Susan. He was constantly remarking, "I can't believe it—everything is so original. It's so incredible!"

WHEN I HANDED DAVID this stuffed guitar, he couldn't resist picking a little tune. "I have to hang this in the music room," he told Sam and Steve and they thought it was great!

LAUDY AND I played "Santa Claus" as we handed David one gift after another. We also did our best to keep track of all the names. Dave wanted to send as many personal thank you's as possible.

WHEN THE PRESENTS were opened, Sam poured box after box of birthday cards over David! It took hours, but David read each and every card!

BURIED UNDER A mound of good wishes, David told me he couldn't think of any groovier way to spend his 21st birthday. His smile was non-stop!

FOR YOU! David saved a piece of cake and a big sip of 7-Up to say thank you to YOU. "I only wish they all could have been here to share it!"
