

42 FAVES REVEAL:

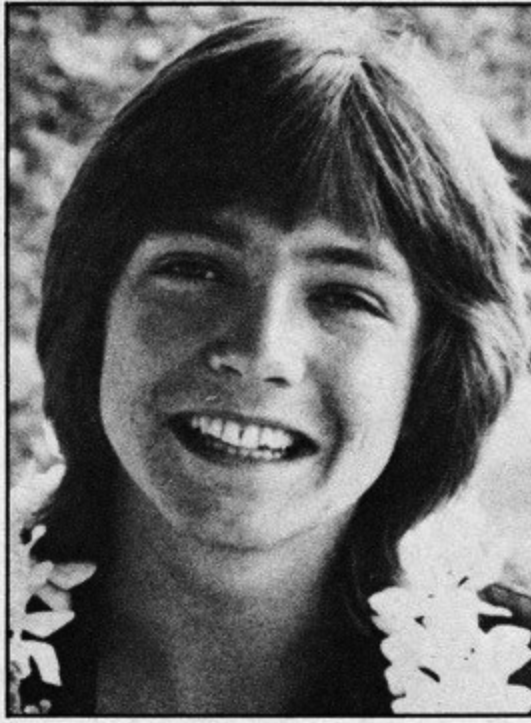

Has this ever happened to you? You're walking along and suddenly you hear a song that used to be a favorite of yours when you were in high school, or when you were dating someone you thought was pretty special, or the year you organized your first party! Everyone has memories of every period of their lives—and so do all your favorite stars! Share their memories of the events that happened five years ago. Maybe you'll remember the special event they describe on the following pages:

BOBBY SHERMAN

"Five years ago, my first TV show, 'Shindig,' ended. And I began a long series of small television roles and not-so-big recordings!"

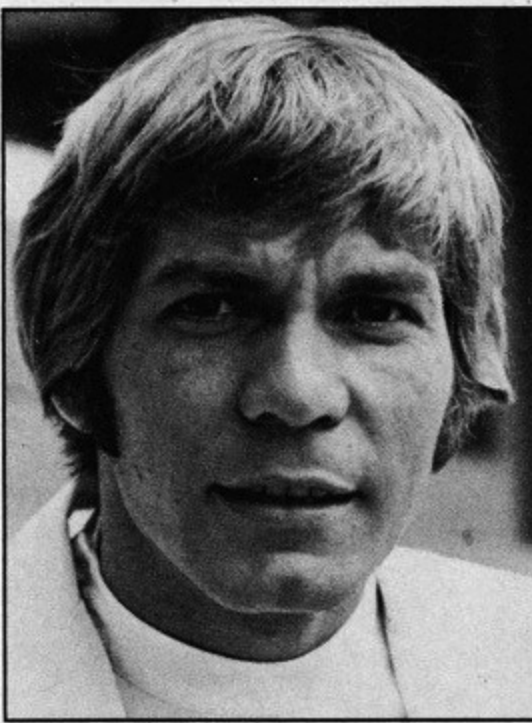

DAVID CASSIDY

"I was dragging myself through what I thought was a useless time called high school. Now I realize it was important and very useful!"

DONNY OSMOND

"I was just starting to sing fairly regularly with my brothers and going to school. Both things were, and still are, very important to me!"

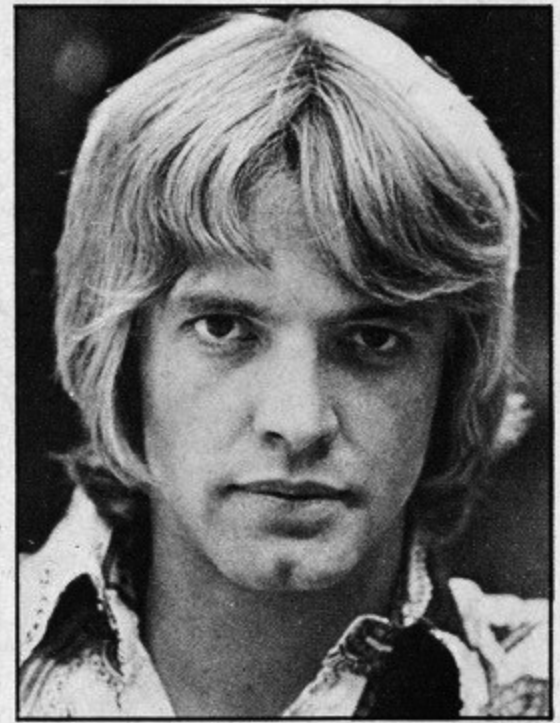

CHRIS STONE

"I had just finished my military obligation with the Marines and starting to play semi-pro baseball in Manchester, N.H., my home."

SUSAN DEY

"Five years ago was during my pre-modeling and pre-acting days. I'd never give up those school days with their happy memories!"

RICK ELY

"I was living out of a 1953 Ford—everything I owned was in it! I was working part-time and interviewing for acting assignments!"
