

"my past...five years ago"

BARRY WILLIAMS

"Acting was in my blood, but unfortunately it was not exactly in my life! I was slowly working my way through school and commercials!"

PHILIPPE FORQUET

"Five years back I was acting in European films—not to mention traveling back and forth between the United States and Europe!"

DAVE MADDEN

"I was having fun portraying Stanley Pruitt, the silly, shaky counselor on my first TV series 'Camp Runamuck.' Low ratings killed it!"

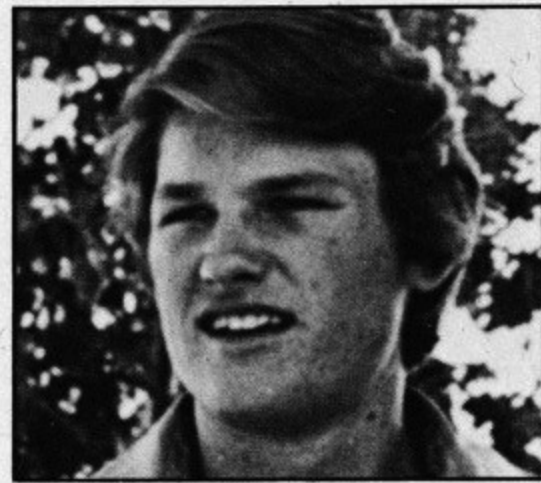

JERMAINE JACKSON

"My brothers and I entertained at parties because it was fun, but we never expected to be doing it professionally someday!"

BRIDGET HANLEY

"I was a student at the University of Washington, and then after graduation moved south to San Francisco and did some stage plays."

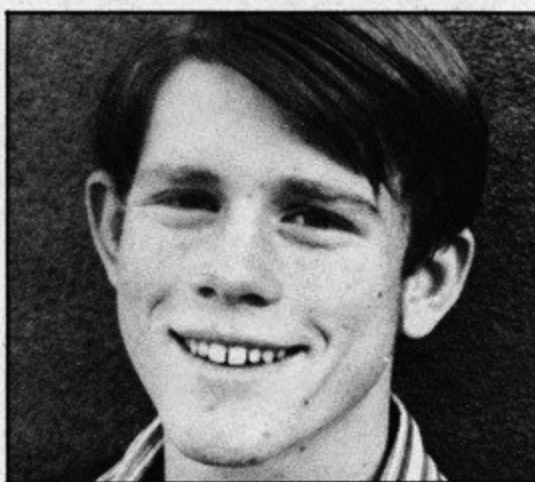

KURT RUSSELL

"Acting was still fairly new to me then, but I enjoyed it nonetheless! 5 years back I did 'Willie And the Yank' for Disney."

FRANK WEBB

"Five years ago I was in high school and looking forward to graduation. And shortly after that, I began touring with the 'Fantasticks.'"

RONNY HOWARD

"At that time I was portraying 'Opie' on the 'Andy Griffith Show' and was attending elementary school as a 'mini' 6th grader!"

JACK WILD

"Looking at it from the humorous side, I think at that time I was waiting to grow! I was a pretty tiny fellow back then!"
