

Flipflap

Dear FLIP,

I think Bobby Sherman is the greatest guy in the world. And I don't really care what anyone says. It just hurts me to see him put down, the way some people do put him down. He gave me so much happiness, but sometimes I feel like I can never return it. No matter what happens I'll always love him. I never met him and I probably never will. But that doesn't really matter to me. All that matters is that he's happy making other people like me happy. He's just great!! And this girl's in love with him.

Diane
Elizabeth, N.J.

Dear FLIP,

Fantastic! That's all I can say since I saw your article on Rob Grill and his new family in the April issue of your magazine. And the pictures—those are absolutely the most beautiful pictures I've ever seen of Rob. He looks so happy and proud—and with great reason—with his lovely wife Darlene and his adorable son Christian. Thank you so much, FLIP, for printing such a fantastic article and such beautiful pictures. Victory through vegetables, peace and the Grassroots!

Dianne Wingate
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear FLIP,

How I envy "Nina from New York" who got a kiss from Neil Diamond! I saw him in Kankakee and what a beautiful man. He was so friendly to everyone, despite several technical problems. The audience was completely his. I saw people crying, they were so touched. I have never seen such a dynamic performance. He poured his heart out for us. Neil, thank you from Illinois!

Elizabeth Kearns
Kankakee, Illinois

Dear FLIP,

After seeing the Jackson 5 I knew they were wonderful. My girlfriends are always talking about the Osmond Brothers, that they're better than the Jackson 5, but I don't think so. (But I like the Osmonds, too.) I have two rabbits, one called Tito, the other Jermaine; two salamanders, one called Marlon and the other Michael. And a stuffed frog I call Sigmund.

Brenda Rosario
Hayward, California

Dear FLIP,

I just saw The Glen Campbell Goodtime Hour recently and saw my brand new fav! I have always liked Bobby Sherman and David Cassidy. I now love Neil Diamond. I didn't know what talent and looks was until I saw Neil. Boy, am I glad I saved all of my old magazines, because I have pictures of Neil all over my room! I bought 4 of his albums this weekend! I fell in love with every song I heard! I really think you should print more on this genius. I'm not used to not having big color pics of my favs! Please!

Beverly Brown
Austin, Texas

Dear FLIP,

This is to Bobby, so see that he reads it. I just read the story in the April issue of FLIP about the marriage rumors. Bobby, first of all I want to say, "I Believe You!" I really do. And I don't see how anyone else could not believe you. I cried when you repeated over and over again "I'm not married." It was like being scolded for something I didn't do. I never believed you'd lie. But even though I knew you weren't yelling at me, I still felt the pain you were going through. I know how it feels to be called a liar. I could see the tears in your eyes. Well, Bobby, now it's my turn. I Believe You, I Believe You, I Believe You!!

Rozalie Graffeo
Tampa, Florida

Dear FLIP,

I went just crazy when I saw Philippe Forquet! Your magazine is the only one that has him in it. I was so excited yelling and crying that my Mom thought I was in pain. I was—love pain!

Love & Peace
Vallejo, Calif.