

“DATING DAVID CASSIDY IS FUN!”

*Judy Strangis,
the bright, bubbly*

starlet from “Room 222” spends her days with Lloyd Haynes and nights with David Cassidy . . .

Shirley Jones and husband Jack Cassidy dined with David and Judy. Jack has a fabulous sense of humor but this time it's Shirley who cracked David up.

Dave and Judy had fun dressing up one night for a big do . . . however, they frequently prefer the more casual date—it's more fun.

By TONY BOWEN

■ Judy Strangis is a lovely, lucky girl. The Italian miss with the sparkling eyes and groovy long hair has found the best of all possible worlds—and she knows it!

She lives with her parents in Bel Air, and an invitation to talk with Judy-at-home is enough to make other guys envious—Judy with her hair cascading down over her shoulders in wide shining waves and looking fabulously feminine in a slate-grey granny that almost, but not quite, hid her black boots, is really something. A far cry from the shy, pigtails-and-knee-socks charmer of ROOM 222. The two Judys are as different as night and day—but each version is delightful!

It's the pocket-size angel-with-her-hair-down version that brings a twinkle to David Cassidy's Irish eyes and she couldn't be more ecstatic over that young man's meteoric rise in popularity.

"I've always had a crush on David Cassidy . . ." she murmured happily. (Continued on page 58)