

stage, and did a stint on a TV Special, "Toronto." To keep up running around, Bobby uses three gas buggies: his beloved Rolls Royce, a Porsche and a camper truck.

Bobby—and Wally, too—will never forget silly Dopey who died in Bobby's arms after being hit on the street by a speeding car. Dopey's playmate Wally, the bloodhound, looked on with ROBBY OF SKY has been surprised by all the love letters he's been receiving from girls. Sky recently recorded an LP at Mick Jagger's home.

CHART-TOPPERS FROM CANADA are The Original Caste, a relatively new group on the record scene. They've had five hit songs in Canada and are eager to do the same in America. They're also very popular in Japan.

mournful eyes as Bobby buried the loveable little hound in the back yard. Sorrowful Wally dragged tail and turned so listless from the loss that Bobby haunted the kennels to find him a new playmate, about the same age, same breed. Goofy was it. The first few days Wally couldn't lose the blahs but gradually he and Goofy got it together in non-stop romps. Once more love and laughter reigns in the Sherman manor, which is what it should be.

It doesn't make sense for Mick Jagger and his Stones to quit England and live permanently in the south of France. French drug laws are stricter and French taxes are higher.

James Taylor's most ardent admirers believe his type of soft intimate singing belongs in small intimate clubs.

Playing to 40 or 60 thousand people in mammoth arenas like N.Y.'s Madison Square Garden is succumbing to the lust for money, they say.

James' sister Kate Taylor, a disk and stage artist in her own right has been making the Hollywood-Beverly Hills social circuit with man-about-town Kim Fowley, Kim Fowley says.

The most recent Doors album was taped entirely in the do-it-yourself studios in the garages, living rooms and basements of the four-Door group.

Grand Funk last month became the biggest money-making rock gang in the history of U.S. pop. Judy Collins' "Amazing Grace" reminds us of the amazing Grace Slick, Jefferson Jetplane songbird, who christened her baby "god" with a small g.
