

Dear David,

I've noticed recently in the pictures of you I see in Tiger Beat that you don't wear the same ring on your right-hand pinky anymore. You know, the one your father gave you when you were fifteen. The one you wear now is gold. What happened to the other one and who gave you this new one? I hope you don't think I'm prying and if you don't want to tell me I'll understand.

Linda Darling
Phoenix, Ariz.

Dear Linda,

I don't mind your asking at all and I'd be very glad to tell you about my new ring! I don't like to wear too much jewelry, all I usually wear is one ring. Well, for Christmas this year my dad gave me the new gold ring I wear and I put the other one away for a while. My new ring is an exact duplicate of a ring my dad has and he inscribed the inside with the words "Life, Love and Happiness, Dad."

Dear Susan,

I read in Tiger Beat's Partridge Fan Club News that you had to stop eating carrots. Is this true? If so, can you tell me why? By the way, I think you're so pretty!

Donna Clue
Brooklyn, New York

Dear Donna,

Thank you for the compliment! You can be sure that whatever you read in the Partridge Fan Club news is the real truth! What actually happened was that I ate so many carrots (I love them!) that my body was accumulating too much Vitamin A and it was making my skin tone slightly yellowish! The doctor simply ordered me completely off carrots!

WHEN NOT WORKING on "The Partridge Family," Danny Bonaduce goes to public school. During filming months he has an on-the-set tutor.

Dear David,

I'm not really sure what type of incense is your favorite but I sent you a box of Jasmine. I hope it's ok! Peace & Love.

Cynthia Baker

Dear Cynthia,

The incense was really great and I've been burning it so much I've only got about 4 cones left! Jasmine is one of my favorites—I wonder how you knew that? Thank's so much and I'm glad you sent along a picture with it. Now I know exactly what you look like and I can say thanks right to your face—almost! I'd also like to take the chance now to thank everyone else for the beautiful things you send me. I wish I had time to write all of you individually! Thank You Betty Coen of Waukegan, Ill., for the delicious box of Valentine's Day candy! That was the first time I've gotten candy for Valentine's Day! Thank you Lynn Kennedy of New Market, Ont., Canada. The candle's groovy and I've got it in my library! And to Patricia Kay Roberts of Fort Worth, Texas, thanks a million for the groovy shirt! I appreciate all the trouble you must have gone through! Susan wants to add her thanks, too, for the beautiful necklace and choker! It's all too much. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts!

Dear Susan,

My girlfriend said that you wear braces! Do you? I've never seen you with any so I don't know what to believe. Even if you do wear them, I think you're beautiful anyway!

Becky Samms
Newark, Del.

Dear Becky,

I've gotten several letters about me and my "braces" so maybe now I can clear it up for everyone. On one episode of "Partridge Family" I had to wear braces—but, it was just for the show! I don't wear them in real life. Hope that clears it up Becky, and you know, if you read it in "Tell It Like It is" you can believe it!

Dear David,

How does it feel to be 21? I'm only 14 and I hope you don't think I'm too young for you now! I love the "Partridge Family" and I watch it every Friday. Keep up the good work!

Sharon Young
N. Bergen, N.J.

Dear Sharon,

It feels super to be 21! Truthfully, I don't feel any different than I did at 20, but knowing you're a "legal" adult is sort of nice. I'll try my best to keep up with the good work and thanks for watching our show and helping to make it such a success!

Dear Susan,

My girlfriend showed me a copy of a book she got called Susan Dey's Private Journal! She wouldn't let me keep it or study it and I'd like to get one for myself. Where can I get it?

Patsy Brown
Battle Creek, Mi.

Dear Patsy,

You can order a copy for yourself right here through Tiger Beat! Turn to page 62 and find out how! I'm delighted that your girlfriend has the book and I hope she's enjoying it—I hope you'll like yours too! Let me know!

Dear David,

There's this certain magazine that keeps printing your dog's name as Heesh! That isn't right is it?

Peggy Frederick
Hanover, Pa.

Dear Peggy,

It certainly isn't right! Both you and I know that my two dogs names are Sam and Sheesh. I don't really know if I'm spelling Sheesh right, but I know it begins with an S! One afternoon Ann Moses
