

ARRIVING AT THE GRAMMY Awards are David Cassidy with his date Lynn Dubin, Shirley Jones and Jack Cassidy. David and Shirley were among the many presenters of Grammy statuettes. Though David hates wearing tuxedos usually, he didn't mind for such a special occasion. "The Partridge Family" was nominated, but did not win a Grammy.

WITH BEAUTIFUL DATE Julie York on his arm, Bobby Sherman arrives at the Grammy Awards. It makes you wonder — could this be the Julie of "Julie, Do Ya Love Me?" fame? It's my guess it's not, because Bobby still dates many lucky girls!

CAUSING MORE EXCITEMENT than anyone, Paul McCartney and his wife Linda were there to receive the Beatles' Grammy for the best film score for movie "Let It Be." While others dressed formally, Paul and Linda were casual wearing tennis shoes!

PEGGY LIPTON (with steady Lou Adler) flew in from Paris to attend Grammys. From there she took off for two weeks in Puerto Vallarta for a little more sun before returning for her fourth season with the "Mod Squad." How do you like Peggy's new hairstyle and thirties look? Lou has been her steady for 3 years!

STARRING AT CAESAR'S PALACE with Jerry Lewis, The Osmonds stopped the show with their great songs and wild dance numbers! They sang "Everything is Beautiful" at Grammys.

IT WAS A SPECIAL NIGHT for the Carpenters! Less than a year old as a singing team, they took home three Grammys! They were thrilled! Both grew up in California and were college students in Long Beach when Richard formed a group. When his group folded, he asked sis Karen to join him and the rest is history!
