

FlipFlap

Dear FLIP,

I'm a regular buyer of FLIP, and I like to read FlipFlap, but what's going on? Most of those letters criticize or put down someone. Why? What have they done wrong? Isn't there enough trouble in this world without everyone fighting each other? Anyway, you don't see the stars fighting each other. Come on, let's have more Peace 'n Love and less war!

Dear FLIP,

I received my January issue of FLIP today, and when I read in FlipFlap what Jo Ann Landon of Florida wrote about the Beatles, I wanted to cry. I thought it was one of the most beautiful things that anyone has said about the Beatles in a very long time. I agree with her because I, too, am a devoted Beatle fan. Thank you, Jo Ann!!

Dear FLIP,

Thanks for the full page picture of John Lennon in your December issue. At least not everyone has forgotten those four great guys from Liverpool who turned the whole world on overnight. They may be going their separate ways, but they will always be together in my heart.

Dear FLIP,

I'm a great fan of 3-Dog Night. Cory Wells really knocks me out. And I just want to say that Cory and the rest of the group do write back to their fans. Because Cory wrote me back. I have been to two 3-Dog Night concerts and they were both out-of-sight. I just know FLIP won't let me down and will always have my favorite group 3-Dog Night in their magazine.

Dear FLIP,

I just finished reading your December issue and, needless to say, you've done it again! It was fantastic! But I am a little confused. In your David Cassidy special there was a dog (should I say two dogs) named Sam. Well, in two pics, Sam had black patches on his eyes and coat. But on your next page David was hugging "Sam" (lucky dog!) and this "Sam" was completely white. In another issue you said there were two dogs. So, FLIP, can you please tell me which dog is which?

Oops—you're right! The lucky dog getting hugged by David is his roommate's dog, Shish. David's dog, Sam, is the black and white one.

Dear FLIP,

I like your magazine very much. FLIP is the only magazine I buy, because it tells the most about the best. One thing I don't like about FLIP is sometimes you tell too much. Right now you are devoting about one-half of your magazine to David Cassidy and the Partridge Family. I know David is many girls' favorite guy, but can't you cut off about two pages of him to make room for nice newcomers like Chris Stone, Chris George and Michael Larrain?

Dear FLIP,

I just had to write this letter and tell you how much I adore "The Partridge Family." My favorite, of course, is David Cassidy. I think he is one of the greatest and cutest actors and singers ever to come along. Susan Dey is also a great actress and very pretty. Danny Bonaduce is so funny and so great. Little Suzanne Crough is so cute. Jeremy Gelbwaks, I think, is so adorable. I only wish he had a bigger part in the show. And last but not least, Shirley Jones, also one of the great actresses. Thank you, FLIP, for a really superb article on the Partridge Family in the December ish. Keep up the good work!
