Lawyers" is fascinated by ESP? And what's more, he's taking a course in it. And what's even more, he's got a very telepathic teacher—his wife, Marily.

Talented DENISE NICHOLAS of "Room 222" is taking up a second career—writing. Her book, "A Primer of Black Beauty," is being published by the Cornerstone Libraty. Watch for it!

VINCE EDWARD's enjoying playing Matt Lincoln, a very unorthodox psychiatrist. "Matt doesn't just treat people in his office," Vince says. "In fact, we never even show a couch on the show" . . . BURT REYNOLDS spent a few hours in the hospital recently after an explosion during the shooting of a fire scene on "Dan August." Luckily he wasn't seriously hurt.

MUNGO JERRY performed to crowds that were definitely not SRO here . . . BREAD is living proof that an unsuccessful first album doesn't necessarily mean the end of the world for a new group. Luckily, they didn't let a cool reception discourage them and followed their album, "Bread," with "Make It With You," one of last year's biggest hits. Needless to say, they were quite happy with the sales of their second album, "On The Waters." The talent-laden members of Bread are DAVID GATES, group leader and writer, guitar and bass; JIM GRIFFIN, lead vocals and rhythm guitar; ROBB ROYER, lyricist and lead guitarist; and MIKE BOTTS, drums.

And if you don't have it already, add to your "don't-miss" list RICK ELY's new album called "Rick Ely."

Till next issue!

DAVID'S SUPER SECRETS

DAVID'S TEMPTATION

David really enjoys eating and loves good food. But he knows it's a temptation he has to resist. Though you'd never guess it to look at him, he tends to gain a little more weight than he'd like.

"It all goes here," he says, pointing to his stomach. "My father's the same way. He gains weight in the stomach."

HIS UN-TALENT

As multi-talented as David is, there's one thing he doesn't have a talent for—cooking. But maybe that's just because he hasn't worked at it up till recently.

But now David can say, "I've improved quite a bit. I was not up to par when I started. Now I can boil water."

LOVE OF ANIMALS

When you see David with his dogs, Sam and Sheesh, you can tell they're a very important part of his life. His eyes really light up when he's playing with them or when one of them comes up and nuzzles or licks him.

But it's not just David's own pets that he loves. He's crazy about all different kinds of animals. Among his favorites are dogs, horses, monkeys and—surprise—cats.

"Unfortunately, my dogs don't get along with cats. Otherwise I'd probably have some," David says.

FAVORITE GIRLS

David's been interested in girls for a good number of years. But between then and now, a lot of things in his life have changed. Has David's taste in girls changed as he's grown older, too?

"Absolutely," he laughs. "I used to like young ones. Now I like older ones."

But David admits that the girls he likes now are really not that different from the girls he used to like.

He says, "I'm attracted to the same kinds of girls I think. At least physically."

And what kind is that? "Warm, earthy, positive girls," David says.

FEARS ABOUT GIRLS

There are some other things that haven't changed in the way David feels about girls. And one is that feeling of anxiety he gets when he meets a new girl. He's always had it . . . most boys do, just as most girls do, too.

"I still get the same feeling in there," David says. "But I guess it's sort-of broken in a little bit. I've had that feeling a lot of times, though."

AVOIDING LOVE

As much as David enjoys meeting and getting to know and care for girls, he's trying his best to stay away from real love. And he has his reasons.

David says that one of the most important things in his life will be "finding someone to share life and everything with—but not now."

Right now David's career is the big thing in his life. All his attention is turned toward becoming the best actor and musician he can. Sure, that still leaves David time to enjoy the company of girls. But it doesn't leave much time for finding that once-in-a-lifetime kind of love. That will just have to wait till later.
