

Here They Are: The Winners of David's Puppies!

From thousands and thousands of entries naming David Cassidy's cute puppies, David had to choose just five winners. Now in his own words, David tells how he chose the winners!

I knew when I first agreed to give away the puppies in a contest that I would be forced to make some pretty hard decisions. But I knew, too, that by giving them to my fans that they would all have good homes with lots of love!

I never realized that we would get as many entries as we did! Whew! Every weekend for two months I pored over the thousands of names sent in to Tiger Beat.

In the end, there were many names that were similar. But each entry was time-stamped as it came into the Tiger Beat offices and of my favorite names, where there were duplications I chose the earliest postmark, following the contest rules. I felt this was the only way to be truly fair to all those who had entered.

I was really thrilled to read all the imaginative names YOU dreamed up and when I finally decided on the five names, I chose names that fit the puppies' personalities best.

It was a very hard thing to give the puppies up when the time came to ship them to their new owners. I loved all the puppies very much, but I know they all are receiving lots of love from their new families!

CASSY

"Janice said on her entry that she wanted to call the puppy Cassy, short for Cassidy. I ask you, what guy could resist that tribute? Cassy seemed like a sweet name for the other female of the litter."

NAMED BY JANICE RICHARDS PASCO, WASHINGTON

"When I received David's handwritten letter telling me I'd won one of his puppies, I could hardly believe it! Then when beautiful Cassy arrived, my dreams had come true!"

DAINTY

"Dainty was always the tiniest one in the litter and this name really fit her. She's the little lady of the bunch, very dainty and always a playful puppy. She's a doll!"

NAMED BY CHRISTIE BARKER SHREVEPORT, LOUISIANA

"Dainty was so frightened when she arrived at the airport, but she slept with me the first night and by morning she seemed very content. I love her to death and all I can say is thanks so much to David!"

