

parents enough time to "rediscover" their love. Sometimes parents drift apart and sometimes they argue with the result being a divorce or separation. Be glad that your parents found they still love each other and sit back and let them enjoy it. Sometimes a little time is all that is needed. I'm sure your parents haven't forgotten you! They're just swept away with their new found love. Wait a while longer and see what happens. If you still feel this way a few weeks from now, you should talk things over. Even through tears, talking is better than silence when something is bothering you. Please write and let me know how everything goes, promise?

Dear David,

I have two questions to ask you. First of all, is it true that there is a magazine out that is all about you? And second, is there anything between you and Susan Dey?

Connie Albright
Eastchester, N.Y.

Dear Connie,

It's true! There is a magazine that's on sale now called Tiger Beat Spectacular that is all about me! As for Susan and me, what there is between us can be summed up in one beautiful word - friendship. Hope that answers your questions!

Dear David,

I was wondering how you and Susan Dey, Jeremy and the other Partridges got together in the first place. Did you all know each other before you made the "Partridge Family" pilot?

Billie Moses
Denver, Colorado

Dear Billie,

Before we made the pilot, none of us "Partridge" children even knew each other existed! The first time we ever laid eyes on one another was when we showed-up for readings when they were casting for the show. Susan Dey wrote a great story about our first meeting called "The Day I met David," and you can read it in Tiger Beat's first issue of the Official Partridge Family Magazine. Thanks for writing to me. It's great to hear from you!

Dear Susan,

I'm curious! In Tiger Beat you said once that Jeremy's hair is blond. Well, if it's blond, why does it look brown on the show and in his pictures! Please solve my curiosity. I'm depending on you!

Robin Black
Cypress, Calif.

Dear Robin,

Jeremy's hair is what people refer to as dishwater blond! That means it's sort of brownish-blond, depending on where he is. If he's out in the bright sun or standing under lights his hair looks more blond. But, if he's in the shade or inside somewhere it looks more brown in photographs. Hope that solves your curiosity.

Dear David,

My girlfriend and I have an argument concerning your eyes. I say they can change from hazel to brown, she says they're just plain hazel. Who's right?
