PARTRIDGE Fan Club NEWS

By Cecelia Bonaduce - President

EXCLUSIVE

Each month read all the fan club news about the Partridge Family right here in Cecelia Bonaduce's column!

"Mr. Kinaid, Danny Partridge here. I'm about to tell you something that could change your whole life".—If you're an avid Partridge fan, I'm sure you recognize that line. Danny says it almost every week on "The Partridge Family," and although Mr. Kinaid may be tired of hearing it, a truer statement was never made. The success of the Partridges did change his life . . . and ours. It's a strange sensation being involved with the biggest new group in show business. What's new with the Partridge people? Read on.

The biggest event this month was Susan Dey's eighteenth birthday. When you're an actress, eighteen is the magic age. Now the director can keep Susan late in the evenings for overtime. Susan said that she finally realized that she was an adult when she got an hour for lunch and the kids got an hour and a half. That's one of the sacrifices of growing up, I guess.

The cast and crew threw a big surprise party for her. You should have seen her dressing room! There were so many flowers, it was almost impossible to get in the door! Another surprise for Susan was the cassette tape recorder/radio she received from everyone on the set. Susan's comment . . .

"Unbelievable . . . It's just unbelievable" . . . I believe it.

The Bonaduce's have a new addition to the household. It's an owl! One of the assistant directors found out that Mrs. Bonaduce collects owl statues, and the next thing you know, he had a live one for her.

Turns out that Jeremy isn't the only talented Gelbwaks. His younger brother, Mathew, is making the television rounds. Mrs. Gelbwaks told me that Mathew has appeared in two "Julia's," an "Interns" and has made a commercial! We may have another star in the near future, at the rate this boy's traveling.

Another interesting tidbit concerning the Gelbwaks is the fact that they are going to Washington D. C. for a few months. Jeremy said that they plan on leaving as soon as the Partridges stop shooting for the season.

Many Tiger Beat fans have asked about recreation on the studio lot. One of Dave Madden's favorite pastimes is a fast game of frisbee. Dave keeps a black and white frisbee in his dressing room, and when things get dull . . . out it comes. David Cassidy is his usual victim. They both throw a mean frisbee! They've asked me to play a few times which is an honor . . . but I always get hit in the mouth!

Shirley Jones' beauty tip of the month . . .

"The only way to lose weight is to cut down on what you eat. These fad diets just don't work." And on that note, we stop eating.

One of the more exciting moments on the set was the week Charleton Heston came to Columbia ranch. Mr. Heston is doing a movie at Screen Gems and he spent a few days shooting at the ranch. Everyone on the lot was hoping to meet him, but the only one to make friends with him was Danny!!

Danny would climb up a ladder, and Mr. Heston would pretend to shoot him. Danny would dive off the ladder onto a bed of styrofoam. It was terrific. That boy should be in movies.

Danny received a fifty page letter from a fan. It took almost all day to read it. Danny read it inbetween scenes, so it kept him very busy . . . One other thing about the letter . . . the young lady mentioned that she joined the Fan Club. If you think that's a hint, you're right. Join!!

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS ABOUT THE PARTRIDGES

Dave Madden has a green bike with his name on it.

Suzanne Crough loves pineapple.

Danny's favorite actor (besides Dave and David, of course) is Boris Karloff.

Susan Dey took five years of French. (tres bien)

Shirley Jones cannot change a tire.

See you here next month!
