
the REAL

David Cassidy

How alike and how different is David Cassidy from the image you see on your TV screen every Friday night? Don't you wonder sometimes if he shares some of your very own opinions and habits? Do you have anything or everything in common with this exciting new star? Let's ask David himself and find out—would the real David Cassidy . . . PREFER SPORTS TO GIRLS?

“Never! I was really interested in all kinds of athletics when I started high school, but soon after I got lots more interested in pursuing girls!”

GET BORED WORKING ON “THE PARTRIDGE FAMILY?”

“I’m never bored when I’m actually working. Between scenes there are moments when the time lags a little, but I keep busy by going to my dressing room and working on my lines or playing my guitar.”

EVER FOLLOW A SUDDEN URGE TO DO SOMETHING?

“Well, I always have the urge to fly away somewhere, and I have sometimes. I’ve gone places on a minute’s notice, like one trip I took to Las Vegas on the spur of the moment. It’s fun to do things like that!”

CELEBRATE HIS BIRTHDAY?

“No, I don’t. I can’t remember when I’ve done something special just because it was my birthday! Last year I was at a Little League game with my brother, and I forgot all about it until I got home and there were some gifts piled on my bed!”
