With Easter vacation and warm spring days just around the corner, it's time to relax, unwind, and, in the case of 22 of your favorite guys, do a little dreaming about some happy, lazy days gone by!

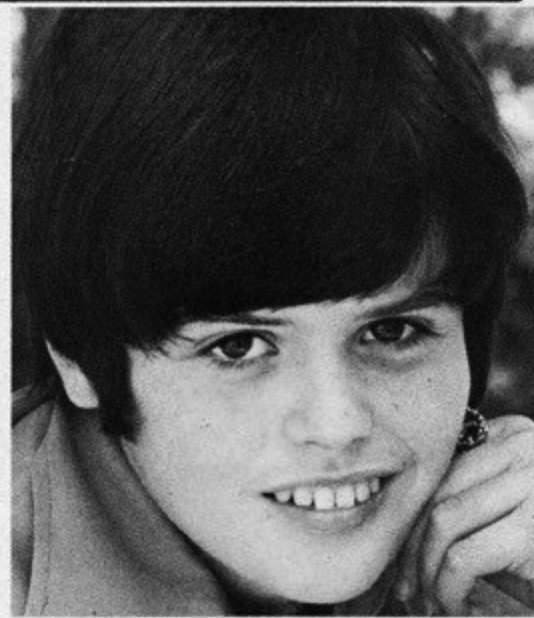

BOBBY SHERMAN

"Although it wasn't exactly a vacation, I can't say it was work either because I loved every minute—my first concert tours after 'Brides'."

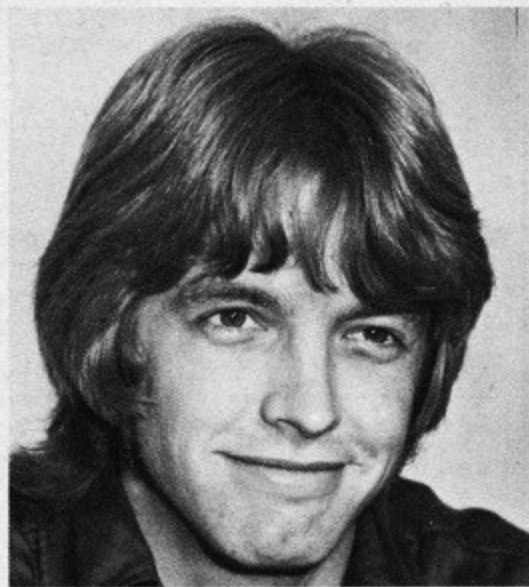

DAVID CASSIDY

"I enjoyed the spring of '68 when I graduated from high school 'cause I was ready at last to enter the outside world and try acting!"

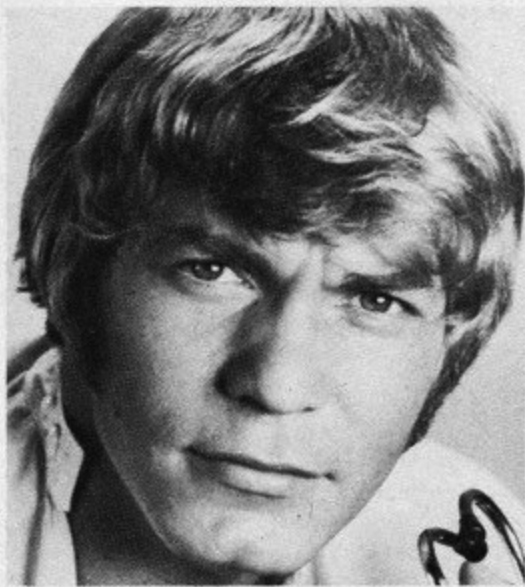

DONNY OSMOND

"The ideal vacation spot for me is back home in Utah. Occasionally we do get back there, and springtime visits make it that much nicer!"

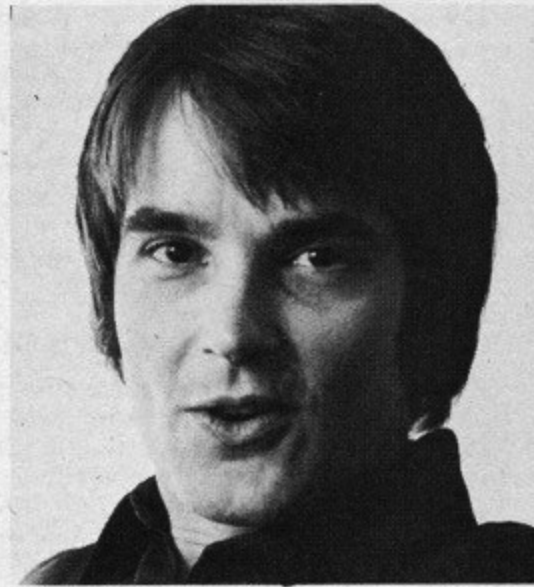

RICK ELY

"Since my birthday occurs around springtime, that's always a fun time for me—especially when my friends surprise me with a great party!"

CHRIS STONE

"Before I got involved with acting, spring always meant one thing to me—the start of spring training for baseball season. It was a great time!"

PHILIPPE FORQUET

"Every spring I get the urge to travel. I set out with no particular destination; just the word "go!" And that to me is most interesting!"
