Of course, the list of people involved with the Partridges goes on and on, but here are a few of the unsung heroes!

TED STROBEN . . . special effects. Ted has one of the most fascinating jobs on the lot. Every time a script calls for rain or snow or something of that nature, Ted had to come up with a rain-storm or a blizzard. Do you remember the show about Danny Partridge leaving the group? There was one scene where Danny meets Reuben in a steam bath . . . well, you can thank Ted for the steam (actually, it was dry ice).

FRED JACKMAN . . . director of photography. Mr. Jackman is not a cameraman. A cameraman's job is to sit behind the camera while filming a scene. Mr. Jackman, on the other hand, sets the scene up. The job of everybody being where they belong . . . on camera . . . is his responsibility.

JUEL ANDERSON . . . social worker. Mrs. Anderson teaches the three little ones (Danny, Jeremy, and Suzanne). The law requires that children under eighteen have three hours of schooling each day. Of course, if you graduate from high school, before you turn eighteen, the lessons are not required!

Q. Dear Cecelia,

Hi. I would like to know what you do in the Fan Club. Also, I would like to know if David wears make-up on TV? Thanks for your time.

Peace,
Lisa Katz

A. Dear Lisa,

Although the Fan Club is still very young, activities are already being planned. As soon as I'm sure of definite activity, I'll let you and all the other members know.

Yes, David does wear make-up on TV. Almost all actors do . . . with the exception of child actors.

Q. Dear Cecelia,

I bought FaVE magazine. On page 23 it tells about joining the Partridge Fan Club. I was wondering if you have to pay 25¢ for rush handling or $25.00? Please answer!

Barb

A. Dear Barb,

I guarantee that it will only cost you 25¢ for rush handling, even tho' lots of our members have said that it's worth much more than it costs! So join now so you don't miss out on all the goodies!
