

FAX = Faves FAX = Faves...

When Danny Bonaduce was growing up in Pennsylvania his favorite toy was the lid of a trash can! (He liked to sit in it and slide down hills!)... A devoted fan sent the Osmond Brothers a beautiful life-size family portrait... A survey of worldwide album sales indicates that the Beatles have sold over 56 million LP's during the days of Beatlemania, and that's not even including their efforts as solo artists!... David Cassidy was appointed Teen Chairman of the Los Angeles March of Dimes by General-Elect Evelle J. Younger... The Atco album "Two Years On" marked the return of the Bee Gees, who began their two week concert tour in the United States in March... Pretty soon a miniature "Bugaloo Buggy" will be on the market for all interested fans!... Bobby Sherman's tip for weight-watchers is to work on stomach exercises a half hour before or after breakfast, as it seems to be most effective in shedding pounds... Be listening for the Hagers' radio commercial on Gulf Oil... Super scoops: Did you know that the man behind Motown, Berry Gordy, began his career as a professional boxer; Philippe Forquet was once engaged to the late Sharon Tate; Del

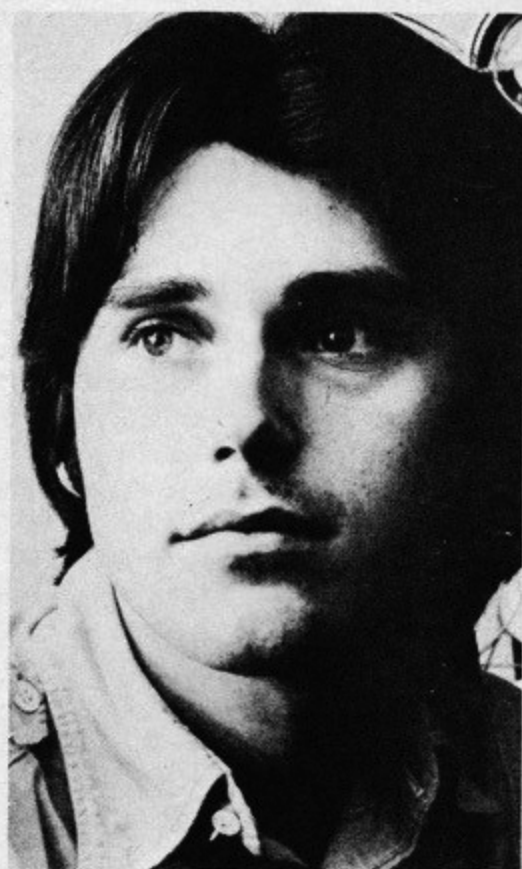

PHILIPPE FORQUET

MIKE CURB

Russel's date for New Year's Eve was Susan Dey, and Elvis Presley's new Hollywood home cost nearly $500,000??... James Brolin says he's been taking singing lessons on and off for most of his life... Judy Collins is expecting in springtime... Hard to believe, but Dave Edmunds' smash "I Hear You Knocking" was originally recorded in 1955 by Smiley Lewis... Paul Simon may release a solo album... Micky Dolenz is having a recording studio installed in his home... Del Russel is one of the few people who owns a pair of the original Mickey Mouse cuff links!... David Cassidy's roommate, Sam Hyman, is considering changing his name to Josh Samuels and giving acting a try... Divorce rumors are going around concerning Dennis Hopper and "Mama" Michelle Giliam, who were married last Halloween... Elton John will soon begin work on his upcoming television special... Neil Diamond's auditioning for the "Lenny Bruce" picture... Redeye was chosen as "group of the month" in January for the "Navy Presents" show airing over some 3,000 college radio stations... Vincent Van Patten and Barry Brown are set to appear in "Bravos" for ABC... The Guess Who headlined a fantastic rock concert Feb. 11 at the Long Beach Arena... Meanwhile, Grand Funk did their first European gig at London's Royal Albert Hall... Mark Lindsay is thinking of changing the landscape around his house... Hope you caught Bill Bixby's rave performance in "Big Fish, Little Fish," which aired over the NET stations... David Jolliffe has purchased an engagement ring. Says there's no one special in mind, but he'll keep it on hand just in case!... While "Arnie" was on hiatus Del Russel went up north to spend some restful days at Herschel Bernardi's farm... Sonny Bono underwent kidney surgery in January, and is feeling fine now... Emmitt Rhodes, formerly of the Merry-Go-Round, is back on the scene with "Fresh As a Daisy." We're glad to see it heading up the charts!... Rick Ely started off 1971 by moving into a new house in the hilly section of Encino. He's very pleased, as it is equipped with a fireplace, swimming pool, and is very "private"... Over the Christmas holidays Jon Provost and David Cassidy had a chance to get together and reminisce about the good ol' days they shared together at Rexford High!... Who would believe that Elvis Presley once held down a job as

EMITT RHODES