

Your Face-to-Face Day with David Cassidy!

continued

YOU: "Can you remember your first date?"

DAVID: "Yes. I was about eleven at the time. A friend of mine, Ross, and I asked these two girls to play tennis with us. The trouble was we both liked the same girl, so we kind of ignored the other girl the whole afternoon. But we never asked either girl out again."

YOU: "Can you remember your first pet?"

DAVID: "Oh yes. When I was about five I had a pet cocker spaniel named Tippy. And I was very attached to it as a boy. Tippy was a beautiful dog. When I left New Jersey for California, my grandparents (who live in New Jersey) kept it. Tippy died just last year."

YOU: "Do you remember any other 'firsts'?"

DAVID: "No, except maybe my first own apartment, which I moved into about a year-and-a-half ago. I like my independence, and having my own place was important. But, honestly, I had my independence even while living at home with my parents. Even so, moving into my own apartment was an important 'first'."

YOU: "Let's go from the past to today, to the people you work with on the show. What is it like to work with Susan?"

DAVID: "I enjoy working with her. She's an ingenue, and she has some hang-ups (don't we all?) but she's fun to work with."

YOU: "What's it like to work with Jeremy?"

DAVID: "No comment!"

YOU: "What's it like to work with Danny?"

DAVID: "A nice kid... he'd give you the shirt off his back!"

YOU: "What's it like to work with Shirley Jones, who, of course, has a special relationship to you?"

DAVID: "Yes, she does have a special relationship to me. She's a great lady. We're very close, and the fact that we're related doesn't hang me up when we're filming the show. We have one of those happy, uncomplicated relationships."

YOU: "Now let's go from the world of 'The Partridge Family' to the real world. What are your thoughts on today's drug scene?"

DAVID: "It's not my scene. Generally drugs are stagnating, hold you back and are self-indulgent. For most people, it's an escape."

YOU: "If you were asked about marijuana, what would you say?"

DAVID: "Make up your own mind. It's not for me to say. I personally don't need it. My escape is sleep. But I honestly am not convinced that it's any more harmful than alcohol."

YOU: "What are your thoughts about student demonstrations?"
