

RICK ELY

Dear FLIP,

I think Rick and Philippe are real dolls! They're both handsome, both actors, and both have the same girl-catching eyes. I hope you'll write and put more pics about both of them in FLIP. I love them both!

Laurie Burnett
Dayton, Ohio

Dear FLIP,

I just had to write and tell you that Funk & Wagnalls should invent some new words. What I mean is that love isn't a strong enough word to describe my deep adoration and respect for absolutely gorgeous Philippe Forquet! Something had better happen pretty soon, because I am running out of fantabulous words to describe Philippe!

Barbara Durst
La Mirada, Calif.

Dear FLIP,

I wonder if you can do me a favor. I love David Cassidy! He is number one—in my room I have wall-to-wall David. He has a beautiful, fabulous face. I love, love, love him. In next month's FLIP, could you have David Cassidy's picture in the centerfold?

Cheryl Marrone
Saddle Brook, N.J.

Did you see the delicious David centerfold in the April FLIP? It's of David smiling at you—and it's in beautiful true color! And how about the pic on page 35 of this issue?

Dear FLIP,

I have just finished reading your March issue, and it was terrific, as all the FLIP mags are. For a long time now I have been wondering about the kind of house David Cassidy lives in. I've heard all kinds of different things. Like one is that he lives in a new house in Laurel Canyon, another that he lives in an old rambling house in Laurel Canyon, another that he lives in the Hollywood Hills, and another that he lives in an apartment. Could you, FLIP, please tell me the truth about what he lives in and where?

Confused FLIP fan
Bakersfield, Calif.

Until recently, David lived in a rustic house in Laurel Canyon. But now he's moved—and there'll be exclusive pictures of David at home in his new house in next month's FLIP!

Dear FLIP,

I heard "Young Rebels" is being canceled. But they just can't be! I mean, they're getting so much publicity in all the teenage magazines like yours, and I thought they really were gettin' popular. Well, I've never missed a show, except for one Sunday when the TV station was off. I wouldn't miss 'em for anything. I love 'em! I guess one reason's because I'm a history nut. But the other one is because I think the actors really play their parts groovily. I'm desperate and I'd just die if "The Young Rebels" was canceled!

Julie Henricks
Yoder, Indiana

Dear FLIP,

I wrote to ABC with the address you published in the February issue of FLIP. I wrote a 2-1/2 page letter expressing my feelings about their decision to drop "The Young Rebels." I do not know at this time if it was in vain or not, but no matter what happens, "The Young Rebels" will always be alive in my heart and mind.

D.N.
Trenton, N.J.

Dear FLIP,

I've just finished reading "Your Day on the Set of 'The Young Rebels'" (February issue) and all I can say is "Thank you, thank you, thank you . . .". It was an intelligent article and not all that sugary gop a lot of other mags are printing now. The photographs were lovely, too. I'm 19 and I rarely buy this type of magazine, but if you keep on printing articles and photos of the Young Rebels cast, I'll buy it forever!!

Pamela Catherine
Dover, N.J.