

But just for you, maybe he'll compose a few lyrics, something personal, something to remember him by, and something that will let him remember you. Let's see, what will he write about; the color of your beautiful eyes; your soft hair, your quick smile!

Of course he'll play what he's written for you on his guitar. It's not enough just to write it on paper, it has to be sung so the words can be heard, so he can see your reaction, so you both can share the beauty of what you created together. A song for the two of you!

Love me, love my dog, David feels, my roommate's dog, too. That's "Shish", Sam's dog. Sam used to be David's roommate, but David recently decided to move into a bachelor apartment. He also has a dog named "Sam" and you'll have to love him too, of course.
