By the time you read this, PATTY DUKE should have had her baby . . . she didn't lose it as reported in some other magazines. Also, as of this writing, Patty says that DESI ARNAZ JR. is the father of the child. Desi still isn't talking . . . although his famous mother, LUCILLE BALL, said that if Desi is the father of the child, he will marry Patty and give the baby a name. All of the members of the Hollywood movie-TV colony are anxious to see the outcome.

The FRANK SINATRA JR. paternity suit was dropped. Love these gals who think they can become rich and famous by naming a star as the father of their child.

Speaking of the Sinatra clan, pretty NANCY SINATRA married very handsome producer-choreographer HUGH LAMBERT. The wedding was held at the St. Louis Catholic Church in Cathedral City, California. The 30-year old Nancy and her 40-year old bridegroom were married on the 55th birthday of her daddy, FRANK SINATRA. Poppa Frank

held the reception for the couple at his Palm Springs, California home. It's the second marriage for both Nancy and Hugh. She divorced singer TOMMY SANDS in 1965.

Meanwhile, TINA SINATRA and ROBERT WAGNER continue to make the steady scene. Friends say they shall wed any edition now... the only hold up is the divorce Wagner is getting from his MARION WAGNER.

There was some blow up between OLIVIA HUSSEY and ROBERT LIPTON. Seems that one columnist wrote that Olivia and Robert were going steady. Well, when they read about it, they almost flipped because each of their real steady dates questioned just how serious "their" romances were.

When BETTY BEAIRD isn't playing Marie Waggedorn in the "Julia" series she is very busy managing the fashionable Deux Bes Boutique in Malibu of which she is co-owner.

JULIET MILLS is a "flower child." The "Nanny And The Professor" star brings fresh cut flowers to the set every day for the dressing rooms for her co-stars.

Emmy-award winner KAREN VALENTINE of "Room 222" is a sentimental person. "My closest friends are two girls I grew up with who still live in the same hometown of Sebastopol, California. I see them as often as I can and their friendship is very dear to me. At the end of production every year we have a reunion to which we invite all of our former school friends."

KAREN JENSEN, who recently got married to her long time beau JOHN NEILSEN, has a simple philosophy of life. "The most important things to me are love and warmth, security and respect," said the beautiful and talented actress. "I believe in positive thinking, and that you can get anything you want if you have enough concentrated faith," she added.

SUE ANE LANGDON, that pretty and perky star of the "Arnie" series, started her show business career as a singer in the Radio City Music Hall chorus.

DAVID CASSIDY is off to Hawaii for a holiday now that the "Partridge Family" is finished filming for the season. Upon his return from Hawaii he will be moving into his new bachelor house high in the Hollywood Hills. "I had to move out of the place I had lived in for so long because some magazine printed my address and you wouldn't believe the problems I've had with uninvited guests." David is also putting together a night club and college tour act. He hopes to be able to play Las Vegas someday in the near future. Says he hopes to take his first trip to Europe this summer.
