

DAVID
INVITES YOU:

"COME
SHARE
MY LIFE!"

During a break on the "Partridge" set, David steps outside to say "Hi" to fans. And when he's not busy in front of the camera, you may just find him sitting behind it.

IT'S A MOMENT you've waited for, but a moment you never thought could happen. It's that moment when David Cassidy looks deep into your eyes, smiles a tender smile and whispers softly, "Come share my life." And even if it's only for a day, life with David is sure to be an experience you'll treasure. Here's what it might be like . . .

A HARD DAY'S WORK

On weekdays, David's day begins practically at the crack of dawn. Not only does he have to be on the set to begin shooting sometimes by 8:00 or earlier, but even before that he has to report for makeup. So needless to say, David doesn't keep very late hours during the week. As much as he'd like to, he just can't.