

Partridge Family: SHHH... BACKSTAGE SECRETS!

A LOT happens every day on "The Partridge Family" set. And now you can be part of it—just like a member of the family itself—when you overhear the private stories David, Susan, Danny, Jeremy and Suzanne tell!

The first viewing of the finished "Partridge" pilot, way back last winter, was very exciting. But it had special significance for Danny.

Everyone in the cast and invited guests sat in front of the screen, biting fingernails, hoping it would be a success. After it was over, Mrs. Bonaduce asked Danny what he thought of himself, and the answer was in typical Danny style. He shrugged and sort-of ignored the question. She asked again and he shrugged again. Then, finally, he leaned close to her ear, so only she could hear his reply, and whispered, "I really thought I was fine!"

Susan Dey secretly wants to work on a farm! She enjoys the fresh outdoor air, and doesn't mind the thought of hard work. She knows what it's all about, too. One of Susan's friends went to Ireland to work as part of the Experiment in International Living and her
